The American Standard Bible

Authorized and Edited by the American Revision Committee and bearing their attestation on back of every title page

Prices from 45 cents to $65.00

THE American Standard Revised Bible, edited by the American Revision Committee, was published in 1901 and has grown steadily into public favor until now it is the recognized Standard Version of the Bible for all the great religious bodies.

The General Convention of 1910, by an overwhelming majority, gave permissive use of this version in the Church services.

REV. SAMUEL HART, D.D., Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn., says: "I consider that it presents the Scriptures in their English form."

REV. L. W. BATTEN, Gen. Theo. Sem., N. Y., says: "I require the students to use the American Standard Bible in the General Theological Seminary."

Nelson's Prayer-Books and Hymnals

These Prayer-Books and Hymnals conform to the Standard of the Church in every respect. They are beautifully printed in four sizes of type on fine quality white Bible paper and Nelson's India paper,—THE THINNEST PRINTING PAPER IN THE WORLD. The Practice of Religion

A short Manual of Instructions and Devotions—Illustrated—by the Rev. Archibald Campbell Knowles, with a preface by the late Bishop of Fond du Lac (Dr. Grafton). Price, cloth, gilt.....$0.35

"These Instructions on the Church and Her Faith and Practice are brief but accurate. The author treats of the Church, the Creed, the Sacraments, the Spiritual Life, Public Worship, Christian Symbolism, the Church Calendar, and Christian Duties and Virtues, in a manner that will impress the youthful mind. The Devotions that make up the second part of the booklet are to be highly commended for their simplicity and suitability. The whole book breathes the true spirit of Catholic Faith and Devotion."

Twentieth Thousand

A Manual of Devotion

By the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, D.D., Bishop of Tennessee

Price, cloth, $0.35.

A brief Instruction on the Creed, the Incarnation and the Church and her gifts (Faith Sacraments and the Ministry) precedes the devotions which—like the Instruction—are intended for young people. These devotions lead, naturally, up to the Holy Communion. The booklet closes with most helpful meditations on God, the Soul, Sin, Redemption, Holy Communion, Life, and Death. A most acceptable gift to any boy or girl, especially when preparing for Confirmation.

The Place of Women in the Church

Essays: The Teaching of St. Paul as to the Position of Women, by Rev. CANON GOUDGE, Principal of Ely Theological College. Ministrations of Women in the Church, by Rev. Dr. DARWELL STONE, Principal of Pusey House. The Ministry of Women and the Tradition of the Church, by Rev. Dr. W. J. SPARROW SIMPSON. The Claim of the Priesthood for Women, by Lady HENRY SOMERSET. The Ordination of Women, by GERALDINE E. HODGSON, Litt.D. The Medical Ministry of Women, by Dr. MARY SCHARLIEB. The Religious Life for Women, by Mrs. ROMANES. Younger Women and the Church, by Miss E. K. SANDERS. Price $1.15. Postage about 12 cts.

The Episcopate and the Reformation

OUR OUTLOOK

By the Rev. J. P. WHITNEY, B.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History, King's College, London. Cloth, $1.15. Postage about 12 cts.

"The stand taken by the Church of England at the Reformation, first on principle but with some timidity and then with growing confidence, has given to it the law of its life. It must work out its mission in obedience to that law, in the fulness of its life and in face of its many responsibilities, national and imperial. It refuses equally Papal tyranny and the anarchy of individualism. Episcopacy is, as we see from history past and present, alone able to guide the forces of a many-sided life and to inspire a Christian democracy. Some reasons for this belief I have tried to give with illustration from the past and with hope for the future."—From the author's Preface.

Life in the World to Come

By the Rt. Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D., Bishop of Edinburgh. Cloth, $1.15. Postage about 12 cts.

Part I consists of five chapters on the general subject, The Promise of Immortality, and Part II of four on The Fulfilment. Bishop Walpole perceives that with the great personal losses in the war there is a widespread groping after the truth even where agnosticism seems to reign. "The spiritualistic story of the mother who touched her own son ten days after he had passed over has been told with a passion and conviction that startled the hearer, but the story of the disciple who touched the risen Christ is told without either interest or warmth. The mother spoke of the doubtful as though it were true: the preacher spoke of the true as though it were doubtful. But it was not so once."

BISHOP GORE'S NEW BOOK

THE RELIGION OF THE CHURCH

As Presented in the Church of England.

A MANUAL OF MEMBERSHIP

BY THE

Rt. Rev. CHARLES GORE, D.D.

Bishop of Oxford

First issued last fall, this book aroused more attention in England, in spite of the preoccupation of men's minds with war, than any other religious book for many years. The book has passed through four editions, aggregating 25,000 copies, since fall.

The problem of War transportation created a long delay before copies were received in this country. Two lots, however, have been received, and both were sold out from advance orders before the copies could be placed in stock.

War insurance rates are now prohibitive and ocean transportation very dangerous. The Young Churchman Company has therefore reprinted this book, and an edition is now on the market.

It is not a "pirated" edition.

We enter promptly into an arrangement with the English publishers (Messrs. A. R. Mowbray & Co., for whom The Young Churchman Co. are American agents) whereby royalty will be paid upon this edition. The reprint is made because of the practical impossibility, under present circumstances, of supplying the book otherwise to American readers.

Religious Books on the War

The Church in Time of War

A volume of Sermons by the BISHOP OF LONDON. Cloth, $1.25. Postage about 12 cts.

Contains three sermons on the general subject, What are we Fighting For? Also a War sermon to Boys, a sermon, Life for Ever and Ever, at the Canadian Memorial Service, A sermon to Mourners, a sermon "to the Nation from the Steps of St. Paul's", The Church's Call to the Soul of the Nation, etc.

Some Spiritual Lessons of the War

Five Sermons. By HENRY PHELPS DENISON, Prebendary of Wells. Cloth, 75 cts. Postage about 8 cts.

Sermons on "What shall a Man Give in Exchange for his Soul?" The Cause for which we are Fighting, The Princedom of this World, The Experience of History, The New Heaven and New Earth.

So As By Fire

NOTES ON THE WAR

By HENRY SCOTT HOLLAND, D.D. Stiff paper, 40 cts. Postage about 5 cts.

A brilliant exposition of the Christian philosophy of War—the War of God and the War of Man. It answers the questions arising out of the present War which religious-minded men and women are asking all over the world. It explains the bearing on the problems of War of the revelation of God in history, especially in the history recorded in the Old and New Testaments. It finds in the Sermon on the Mount the charter of Christion Knighthood. It shows how Christianity goes behind the Principle of Nationality and lifts mankind into a life that is independent of racial distinctions. It reinforces Faith in Providence.

This Time and Its Interpretation

THE WITNESS

Two books by the Rt. Rev. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D., Bishop of Edinburgh, the second a continuation of the first. Each, cloth, $1.00. Postage about 12 cts.

The first of these sees in "This Time" the precursor of the Coming of the Son of Man and is a startling Interpretation of the events of these awful years. The second continues the subject as showing the present duty of Disciples to bear "Witness". The two books should be read together.

THE MAN OUTSIDE THE CHURCH AND OTHER SERMONS

A volume of sermons by DEAN ABBOTT of Cleveland, Ohio. Price $1.50. Postage about 15 cts.

Dean Abbott, coming to Cleveland only three years ago from Canada, at once assumed a place among the great preachers of the Church and has since been heard at various national gatherings. A volume of Sermons from his pen will therefore be welcomed. The writer explains that "the Discourses are addressed to the average person who sits but lightly in the pew, and to the stimulation of the over-worked Preacher who would relate his weekly message to the intelligence of the business-wracked worshipper who is physically incapable of extraordinary mental effort on 'the one day's rest in seven.' "

SPIRITUAL STUDIES IN ST. MARK'S GOSPEL

By the Rev. ARTHUR RITCHIE, D.D., Rector Emeritus of St. Ignatius' Church, New York. In three handy volumes. Each 75 cts. Postage about 7 cts. each.

These three volumes, just issued, are uniform with the seven volumes on St. John's Gospel that have appeared in recent years, and complete Dr. Ritchie's "Spiritual Studies" of the Four Gospels. The volumes are small handy books, each with gilt top and easy for reference and for reading.

A VISION REALIZED

Life of Rev. J. A. Oertel, D.D. By J. F. OERTEL. Illustrated, 8vo, $2.50. Postage about 20 cts.

"As a religious painter Dr. Oertel may claim a most distinguished position in American art, for he was one of the few who made that field exclusively his own. . . . With Dr. Oertel it could justly be asserted that the religious principle dominated his entire art-life and colored every expression of it."—Dr. Edwin Wiley.

English History for Children

Two fine books by

ESTELLE ROSS

Illustrated by EVELYN PAUL

in which Church history is properly and correctly interwoven with the history of the nation.

THE BIRTH OF ENGLAND

Cloth, $1.00. By mail, about $1.10.

The Romans withdrew from Britain in 410 A. D., leaving the native inhabitants to defend themselves against wild tribes like the Picts and Scots. To help them the Britons invited over from the continent the Angles and Saxons. This book, starting with the year 449, tells the story of the Anglo-Saxon subjugation of the Britons and conquest of the country. Included are accounts of the Seven Kingdoms established in England, of the conversion of the Anglo-Saxons to Christianity, of their wars with the fierce vikings, and of the reign of the great King Alfred, "captain, lawgiver, saint, and scholar." The fascinating narrative of England's history is brought down to 1066, when the Anglo-Saxons were overcome by the Normans under Duke William.

FROM CONQUEST TO CHARTER

Cloth, $1.00. By mail, about $1.10.

Duke William of Normandy overthrew the Saxon power in England in 1066. In this volume is contained a history of the following one hundred and fifty years, down to the wrestling of the Great Charter from King John in 1215. Among the interesting and important topics discussed are the complete conquest of England by the Normans, the story of the Red King, the wreck of the White Ship, the reign of Henry Plantagenet, the rise and fall of Becket, Richard the Lion-hearted and the Crusades, the story of Robin Hood, and the Anglo-Saxon Church. The life and customs of the people are described, and an account given of the leading men in Church, State, and Army.

Editorial

IT is not reassuring to present the year's statistics (pp. 426-430) with decreases in eight columns and increases in eight. At the same time the condition is quite explainable. General Convention has asked all parishes and dioceses to change their fiscal year to accord with the kalendar year. Heretofore there has been no uniformity in the statistical year reported from the several dioceses. Each has been governed by its own canons, and the year has been so fixed as to be convenient to the diocesan convention. So long as each diocese reported for a consecutive twelve months it was of little importance, in ascertaining totals, that the twelve month periods were not absolutely uniform. But now the change is to be made to a uniform year. Consequently as rapidly as a parish or a diocese conforms to the new plan it must collate statistics for a fractional part of a year and let those suffice for its annual report. Those fractional reports begin this year with all who have tried to act on the new system. The result is absolute chaos in summaries: the baptisms, the confirmations, etc., represent variable periods of time, in many cases less than a year. No one need be alarmed, therefore, at the great decrease reported in each of the items of baptisms, confirmations, and burials. Marriages, even so, have increased, and their number is much beyond the normal ratio of marriages to confirmations and to burials. Evidently the young soldier has married before he has gone into camp, and so has upset that normal ratio, which undoubtedly will be subject to a reverse fluctuation on a still larger scale after the draft has been exhausted.

The worst of it is that this chaos will probably be still greater next year and that a transition period of several years will probably ensue before the entire Church will have conformed to the new rule and all its reports be based on the kalendar year. During that period the totals for these four items—baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials—will be almost valueless as data upon which to base conclusions.

The small increase in communicants—only 4,466, against 27,285 last year, which latter is a fair average of recent years—is more disconcerting. Even that, however, is less serious than appears on the face of it. We have dropped the 1,150 communicants that were last year reported from the European churches; no doubt those communicants are living somewhere, but in the impossibility of obtaining fresh information from those churches we do not feel justified in carrying the figure over into the new tables. Not many of these communicants remain in any European city; but we have retained the old figures in the parochial statements on page 419, so as to indicate the normal peace strength of these parishes. So also the new paroehial blanks have probably been influential in narrowing the standard of what constitutes a communicant. Nominal communicants are being dropped, and that also will affect the delicate balance of comparative statistics, during these transition years. But even these allowances do not explain how Alabama could lose 1,138 communicants in a year, being nearly eleven per cent. of her last year's total. Reference to the journal of the diocese brings no explanation. The committee on the State of the Church comments on the statistical chaos due to the fact that some parishes have changed to the kalendar year and some have not, but obviously this would not greatly affect the number of communicants. In all, twenty-five dioceses and two missionary districts report decreased numbers of communicants. These represent all parts of the country and undoubtedly indicate some explanation not based on local considerations. We believe that which we have suggested is the reasonable one.

War conditions undoubtedly account for the decrease of 53 candidates for orders and 13 postulants, but the clergy list has increased by 21. Reference to the pages devoted to Clergy in War Service, pp. 401-404, shows that three bishops are absent on war duty, three others are commissioned chaplains whose duties are likely to call them away, and 207 presbyters are engaged chiefly or wholly in war service. It is true that many of these are absent temporarily on leave of absence, but as they return others will go, and it may easily be said that at least that number are withdrawn from the normal work of the ministry for the duration of the war. This does not include clergy in parishes adjacent to camps who have added some priestly oversight of the men in camp to their parochial duties, but only those who are understood actually to have left their former work, temporarily or permanently, for particular war service away from their homes. It is significant that, of these, three bishops and sixty-four priests are actually in Europe or on the high seas. Surely no one can charge the clergy, as a body, with a lack of patriotism, or with an unwillingness to volunteer for any form of war service.

Under the several diocesan heads we have sought to distinguish those clergy who are absent "in war service", indicating those who retain parochial connection and are only absent on leave. In the general clergy list we have retained the home address for these latter, indicating a war-work address only where home work is understood to have been given up. We do not need to say that war addresses will be subject to constant change and that war service appointments will be continually shifting. Neither can we pride ourselves that we have been able to make this list entirely complete or accurate at the moment of going to press. But notwithstanding these limitations we believe that no part of the present ANNUAL will be examined with more interest than the pages devoted to the recapitulation of the names of clergy in war service.

The absence of the customary missionary tables is due to the gradual change in the fiscal year of the Missionary Society, which, by several successive years of thirteen months each, is finally to close a year on December 31st and thenceforward to use the kalendar year. The last fiscal year closed October 31, 1917, and the summaries were not ready when the forms of the present ANNUAL were closed. That will be the fiscal year whose tables will be printed in the ANNUAL next year. A recapitulation of the missionary work of the year will, however, be found in the cyclopedia section in this issue.

THE LECTIONARY herein printed is that for the second year of the new series. That Lectionary, it will be remembered, is planned to run through a four-year cycle, beginning with the Advent of a leap year. It was October of a leap year (1916) when the Lectionary was adopted. It was essential to the success of the new system, therefore, that it should come into general use at the beginning of the Advent following—an interval of but little more than a month. In order that it might come into use, it was necessary that the tables should be printed in the then forthcoming issue of the LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL.

To do this it was necessary that the plates be prepared in advance of General Convention. At the earnest request of influential members of the Joint Commission on the Lectionary, therefore, these plates were prepared from advance copy furnished by their secretary, before the finishing touches had been put upon it. A number of changes in particular lessons were afterward made and the system of punctuation was changed. Hence the tables printed in the ANNUAL varied in some particulars from the official text printed much later; but unless this plan had been followed, so that the Lectionary could come into use at Advent 1916, its beginning must necessarily have been postponed until Advent 1920. The corrected punctuation is taken up in this issue beginning with the table for January.

The recapitulation of the legislation of the General Convention of 1916 by subjects will be a convenience to all Churchmen. As General Convention proceeds it is next to impossible to tell precisely what carries and what does not, and still more difficult, frequently, to obtain the precise text of resolutions enacted. The material here printed is made up from the official Journal and is in convenient form for reference.

The information as to changes tentatively made in the Prayer Book is also condensed from the Journal and corrects on that authority the information printed in THE LIVING CHURCH shortly after General Convention adjourned. The whole subject of what changes, if any, were lawfully passed is full of vexatious questions, as has been stated elsewhere, and this list is based upon the official statement printed in the Journal.

We ask that the cyclopedia article on War Activities of the Church (pp. 91-93) be read by all. Coupled with the long list of Clergy in War Service it makes a record of the part taken by the Church in connection with the war of which we may well be proud. And the newly appointed War Commission will ensure the efficient handling of such work as is undertaken by the Church.

It is an anxious time in which we live. The future is in God's hands. It is our part to do the work that devolves upon us, trusting Him to direct its outcome and to overrule the destinies of the nations.

ERRATUM

In the biographical sketch of Bishop Touret (page 90), correct the enumeration of bishops participating in his consecration by omitting the Bishops of Eastern Oklahoma and Utah, who were kept away by a severe storm that delayed their arrival until the service was over. The designated co-consecrators also acted as presenters.

* Lowest of the Year or 57° lower than when highest in December, because the Full Moon must always be opposite the Sun and therefore when the Sun is highest near the Summer solstice the Full Moon nearest that date must be the lowest—and vice versa at the Winter solstice and Full Moon nearest that event.

*Leap Year.

Astronomical Calculations for 1918

By Berlin H. Wright

Eclipses, 1918. There will be three eclipses this year, as follows:

I. Total of the sun June 8, visible as a partial eclipse throughout North America and eastern Asia. The path of the total phase extends from the Bahama Islands to Florida at Melbourne and thence to Orlando, Leesburg, Ocala, Cedar Keys, crosses the northern arm of the gulf and passes between Apalachicola and Tallahassee, thence to DeFuniac Springs, through S. E. Alabama, central Miss. from Meridian to Greenville; Ark. through Arkadelphia; Okla. through Guthrie; S. W. Kas. through Garden City; Colorado, through Denver; across the Continental Divide to Elk Head Mts.; S. W. Wyoming, through Rock Springs and Green River; Southern Idaho from Montpelier the Indian Reservation, Pocatello Hailey, Boise, and Weiser; Oregon, from Baker to The Dalles and S. W. Wash. Yakimah Indian Reservation, Mts. St. Helens and Adams to Westport and Aberdeen on the Pacific Coast. The path of the total phase will be 50-120 miles wide and north of it the eclipse will be on the southern limb of the sun while south of it the northern limb will be obscured. The total occurs on the Pacific coast at 2:55 Pac. S. T. and in Fla. at 5:42 C. S. T.=2:47 min. from ocean to ocean. Along the entire Atlantic Coast the Sun will set more or less eclipsed, as also in Cuba, Bahama Islands, Central America and the Canal Zone. Visible as follows:

	Begins	Middle	Ends	Size
Milwaukee	4 20 p.m.	5 19 p.m.	6 18 p.m.	9 Digits on Southern Limb
New Orleans...	4 37 p.m.	5 35 p.m.	6 34 p.m.	10 Digits on Southern Limb
Chicago	4 23 p.m.	5 25 p.m.	6 20 p.m.	Total
Denver	3 12 p.m.	4 23 p.m.	5 28 p.m.	11 3 Digits on Northern Limb
New York.....	5 32 p.m.	6 29 p.m.	at sunset	8 0 Digits on Southern Limb

II. Partial of the Moon June 24, the Moon setting (Gütelphre) in eastern U. S.; beginning at 4:46 a.m. eastern standard time. Size only 1.6 digits or less than one-sixth of the apparent diameter of the moon, on the southern limb.

III. Annular of the sun Dec. 3, visible in W. Africa and S. Am. south of the Amazon River.

THE PLANETS

Evening, Morning, or all Night Stars, Brightest or Best Seen, and Dim or Invisible.

Morning Stars—West of the Sun.

Mercury, Jan. 13-23 and Sept. 18-28, rising at early dawn near where the sun will later rise.
Venus, from Feb. 10 to Nov. 23.
Mars, not this year.
Jupiter, from June 15 to Oct. 8.
Saturn, from Aug. 11 to Nov. 21.

Evening Stars—East of the Sun.

Mercury, Mch. 21 to 31 and Dec. 1 to 10, setting at close of twilight.
Venus, until Feb. 10 and after Nov. 23.
Mars, all the year.
Jupiter, until June 15 and after Oct. 8.
Saturn, until Aug. 11 and after Nov. 21.

All Night Stars or Planets.

Only those planets having their orbits outside that of the earth can rise at sunset and shine all night, these in 1918 are: Mars, in March, Jupiter, not this year, but very close to it in Dec. Saturn, Jan. 15 to Feb. 15. Uranus, during Aug. and Neptune in Jan. and Feb.

Brightest or Best Seen.

Mercury, within the time limits given above, when an evening or morning star. Venus, Jan. 1 to 10 as an evening star, and March 11 to 21, as a morning star. Mars, in March. Jupiter will not attain his brightest this year, but may be best seen in Dec., being at opposition early in Jan. 1919. Saturn, Jan. 15-Feb. 10. Uranus in Aug. and Neptune in Jan. and Feb.

INVISIBLE OR VERY DIM.

MERCURY, at all other times than those given above, when at his brightest. VENUS, Feb. 5 to 15, being in line with the earth, and sun Feb. 10, or at inferio-conjunction or between the earth and sun, and on Nov. 20-25, when most distant from us, or at superior conjunction. MARS, not at all, unless at the very end of the year. JUPITER, in June, being in conjunction with the sun June 15. SATURN, in Aug., being at conjunction Aug. 11, and URANUS and NEPTUNE always.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES AND ERAS.

Dominical or Sunday Letter, F. Epact.—Moons age Jan. 1, 17. Lunar Cycle or Golden Number, 19. Solar Cycle 23. Roman Indiction, 1. Dionysian Period, 247. Jewish Lunar Cycle, 16. Julian Period, 6631.

The year 1918 corresponds to the following eras: The 142-143rd year of the Independence of the United States of America: since Aug. 1, the 4th year of the Great European War: Jan. 1 of the old style of reckoning time is the same as Jan. 14 new style, which difference will continue until Feb. 29, 2100: the year 8027 of the Greek Church begins Jan. 14th; and Jan. 1 is the 2,421,595th day since the beginning of the Julian Period.

Notes on the Kalendar

FOR THIRTEEN MONTHS BEGINNING ADVENT, 1917, AND EXTENDING THROUGH DECEMBER, 1918

The lessons herein provided are those of the new Lectionary set forth by the General Convention of 1916.

In place of an annual table we have now a table extending over two years and beginning with the Advent of a bissextile or leap year—such as was the Advent of 1916. After the two-year cycle is ended, the lessons continue for another two years by reversing those for morning and evening, reading in the mornings of the third year the lessons appointed for the evenings of the first year, and vice versa; and in the fourth year reading in the mornings the evening lessons of the second year and in the evenings the morning lessons of the second year. Thus the lessons change annually during periods of four years, beginning each cycle at the Advent of a leap year.

The lessons are also framed for the weeks of the Christian year, beginning with the Sundays, instead of according to the days of the kalendar months as heretofore.

Alternative lessons are provided in the tables as follows: a series for the eves of holy days, a series for Rogation and Ember days. In the Lectionary pages here printed, these lessons for the eve and for Ember and Rogation days are substituted for the lessons appearing in the general tables.

There are also alternative lessons for Sunday mornings, which are shown in the tables.

The following provisions are also made in the new Lectionary:

"In reading any Lesson, the Minister may omit an initial conjunction, and substitute for a pronoun at the beginning the name which it represents.

"If in any Church, both Morning and Evening Prayer be not said, the Minister may read the Lessons appointed either for Morning or for Evening Prayer, provided they be those of the year appointed.

"On any Sunday, the Minister may at his discretion read the Lessons appointed for any day in that same week, instead of the Lessons appointed for that Sunday.

"When the Order for the Holy Communion cannot be used on a Holy-day, the Minister may read the Scriptures appointed for the Epistle or Gospel for the Day, in place of the Second Lesson appointed."

The system of punctuation apopted for the Lectionary differs from that which prevailed in the first draft of the committee's report. The table for December, 1917, the first in the series herein printed, continues last year's style wherein a comma was used between chapter and verse. Subsequent tables introduce the more customary colon. A hyphen (-) divides verses and a dash (—) divides chapters. The reference following the dash designates the conclusion of the lesson. Thus: I John 3: 16—4: 6 indicates the passage beginning at the sixteenth verse of the third chapter of I John and ending with the sixth verse of the fourth chapter.

Precedence of Holy Days

PROPOSED BY THE JOINT COMMISSION ON THE REVISION OF THE PRAYER BOOK

TABLE I

Because of their dignity and liturgical distinctions, or because of the sequence of special teaching connected with a stated season, the Holy-days following have precedence of any other Sunday or Holy-day:

The Sundays in Advent
The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ
The Epiphany
Septuagesima, Sexagesima, Quinquagesima } Sundays
Ash-Wednesday
The Sundays in Lent
All the days of Holy Week
Easter-day; and the seven following days
The Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ; and the Sunday after Ascension-day
Whitsunday; and the six following days
Trinity Sunday

If any other Holy-day fall on any day noted in the above Table, the observance of such Holy-day may be transferred to the first open day.

TABLE II

The following Holy-days have precedence of days not noted in Table I:

St. Stephen the Martyr
St. John the Evangelist
The Holy Innocents
The Circumcision of our Lord Jesus Christ
The Conversion of St. Paul
The Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary
All Feasts of Apostles or Evangelists
The Transfiguration of our Lord Jesus Christ
St. Michael and All Angels
All Saints

On these Holy-days the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel for the Feast shall be used; but the Collect for the Feast shall be followed by the Collect for the Sunday.

Ratio of Communicants

To the Population of the United States since 1830.

	Population.	Communicants.	Ratio.
1830	12,867,000	30,939	1-416
1840	17,069,500	55,427	1-308
1850	23,347,884	79,987	1-292
1860	31,442,960	146,600	1-214
1870	38,555,983	220,000	1-175
1880	50,152,866	344,789	1-151
1890	62,480,540	509,149	1-123
1900	76,295,220	714,575	1-107
1906 (U. S. Census estimate)	84,246,252	886,942*	1-95
1910	92,284,139	928,780	1-99

* In order that comparisons may be based upon uniform data, it should be observed that the number of communicants reported by the Living Church Annual of 1907 (figures for 1906) was 837,073, so that for purposes of comparison the ratio of communicants to population in that year should be placed at 1-100. Thus it may be deduced that the actual number of communicants is from five to six per cent. greater than that reported in the Annual for any year, and the ratio correspondingly more favorable. This will also indicate that there has been no backward movement in the ratio between 1906 and 1910.

General Convention of 1916

General Convention held its triennial sessions in the year 1916 in the city of St. Louis, extending from October 11th to October 27th inclusive. The attendance was very large, every diocese being represented in the House of Deputies, and the number of absentees being small. Organization of the House of Bishops was effected by the election of the Bishop of Tennessee as chairman and the Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., as secretary. In the House of Deputies the Rev. Alexander Mann, D.D., of Massachusetts, was reëlected president and the Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D., was reëlected secretary. The chief matters of deliberation and legislation, where completed by the action of both houses, are stated alphabetically below.

AFRICA, CHRISTIANIZATION OF CENTRAL

Early in the session resolutions were adopted in both houses declaring that since "government officials, business men, geographers, and missionary leaders in Africa unite in declaring that the present advance in Mohammedanism among the tribes of the Central African Plateau will result in placing the people of Africa under the sway of Islam," a joint committee be appointed to consider the further Christianization of Africa and to report to the same Convention. This committee was appointed and made its report, as a result of which further legislation was adopted providing that a commission consisting of a bishop, a clergyman, and a layman already appointed to visit and investigate the work of the Liberia mission should further be empowered to make a survey of the French Central African Plateau with reference to the establishment of a mission of this Church therein. The resolutions provided further that this commission, in consultation with the Presiding Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, is empowered to add to its number if so desired, and further that if, after investigation, it is the judgment of this commission that a mission should be established in the French Central African Plateau, the Board of Missions shall proceed to organize and equip the work as men and means may be available.

BISHOP'S PROMISE OF CONFORMITY

The report of a joint commission appointed by the General Convention of 1913 to study the Promise of Conformity made by each bishop on his consecration was presented, including a recommendation that the Promise of Conformity be changed to read as follows: "In the name of God, Amen. I, N., chosen Bishop in the Church of God and to have jurisdiction in the diocese of N., do promise conformity and obedience to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. So help me God, through Jesus Christ."

A substitute offered by the Rev. Dr. Rogers of Fond du Lac was as follows: "In the name of God, Amen. I, N., chosen Bishop in the Church of God, and of the Diocese of N., do promise conformity and obedience to the Constitutions and Canons of the General Convention of this Church and the Diocese of N., and I do accept and firmly believe the faith of the one Catholic and Apostolic Church, as revealed in holy writ, maintained by the undivided Church, and defined in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. So help me God, through Jesus Christ."

Both these forms were reported back to the joint committee for further consideration and the committee was continued until another General Convention.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The triennial report of the Board of Missions showed that "the Board is supporting 9 bishops and 329 clergy and lay workers in foreign lands, together with 1,089 native workers, including clergy, catechists, teachers, and Bible-women. There are also 75 wives of missionaries who render service without appointment or compensation. In the domestic field the Board is aiding 63 dioceses and districts, including Alaska, Honolulu, the Philippines, Porto Rico, and the Canal Zone, and supplying the entire or partial support of 24 bishops and 1,069 missionaries. . . .

"During the triennium a most important financial enterprise has been carried forward in the matter of the New China Fund. The first impetus to this fund was given in February, 1912. At the time of the last Convention it had just begun its work. As a result of the efforts made, and particularly through the work of the Rev. Arthur M. Sherman during his absence on leave from the district of Hankow, a total amount of $204,210.62 has been raised. There are also reliable outstanding pledges approximating $79,650. This fund is devoted to providing needed equipment for our missionary districts in China. The total amount planned to be raised was $357,000. It is to be hoped that the full sum will be made up. . . .

"The Board determined, at the beginning of this fiscal year, to carry out in part the plan so long discussed for freeing the legacies from use to provide current expenses and devoting them to some permanent structural improvement in the mission field. It was voted that the first $50,000 of undesignated legacies should be set apart for equipment in the continental domestic field. This has been done, and at the meeting of the Board of Missions immediately preceding the General Convention the question of the distribution of this amount, or such portion of it as may have been received, was considered. This venture of faith in freeing the legacies for more permanent uses was undertaken by the Board in the hope that the Church would, by larger offerings, make good any loss to the current funds. In this hope the Board has been disappointed, and must now seriously consider whether it would be justified in a continuance of that policy. . . .

"The Board would first of all impress upon the Church the great importance of our Church institutions. With them the last year has been an important one. St. Luke's International Hospital, Tokyo, is all but assured of the large sum which it has been asking from the Church. St. Paul's College, Tokyo, has begun its constructive work, the cornerstone of the first new building having been laid by Bishop McKim on May 29th of this year (1916). St. Mary's Hall, Shanghai, largely through the efforts of the Woman's Auxiliary, has secured its new location and will soon have its buildings. Plans are under way for an adequate plant for the Church General Hospital, Wuchang, China; St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, Japan, is asking needed rehabilitation; the Diocesan School in Porto Alegre, Brazil, has been completed and is in successful operation. . . .

"All these are indications of a growing conviction that we must witness to Christ in foreign lands, not only by the preaching of the Gospel, but also by concrete and practical illustration of its precepts. In behalf of such enterprises the Board bespeaks the utmost sympathy and support from the Church."

BOOK OF OFFICES

Final action was taken by the House of Bishops on the subject of a Book of Offices which had been under discussion and revision for a number of years. The book as finally adopted is "set forth for use where the Bishop of the diocese may authorize it." It was subsequently published by The Young Churchman Co.

BUSINESS METHODS IN THE CHURCH

A very careful and most important report on this subject was presented by a Joint Commission which had devoted much study to the subject. At the suggestion of the commission far-reaching changes were made in the methods pertaining to carrying on the business of the Church, both in parishes, in dioceses, and on a larger scale. Canon 50, "Of Business Methods in Church Affairs," was adopted and for convenience of the Church is reprinted as follows:

"§I. The Fiscal Year shall begin January 1st.

"§II. All accounts, having to do with the receipt, and expenditure, or investments of money of all church organizations shall be audited at the close of each year by a certified public accountant; Provided, however, that if the amount of income for the year, as shown by the account shall be less than $3,000, or if a certified public accountant is not available, the audit may be made by an accountant bookkeeper in no way connected with the subject matter of the account.

"§III. Each diocese and missionary district shall appoint at its next regular convention or convocation—provided one has not heretofore been appointed—and annually thereafter a Finance Committee for the following purposes:

"[i.] To maintain general supervision of the financial affairs of the diocese or district; to secure simplicity and accuracy in collection and disbursement of all funds, and coöperation between the various officers, trusts, and boards of the convention or district; for which purpose it shall establish its own rules and keep a record of its meetings, all of which shall be submitted annually to the convention or convocation.

"[ii.] To act as advisor of the Bishop in financial matters; and, upon request, as advisor to individual parishes within the diocese or district.

"[iii.] To perform such other duties relating to the business affairs of the diocese or district as may be referred to it."

CENTRAL AMERICA, MISSIONARY WORK IN

Negotiations having for some five years past been carried on between the late Archbishop of the West Indies representing the Church of England and the Board of Missions of this Church in regard to work in Central America, it was resolved that the Presiding Bishop be authorized to enter into negotiations to take under the jurisdiction of this Church such oversight of missionary work in Central America as may be transferred or ceded by the Church of England; and that on the completion of such negotiations authority be given for the erection of a missionary district in the Canal Zone and Central America, and for the election by the House of Bishops of a missionary bishop for such district.

CHAPLAINS, ARMY AND NAVY

A Joint Commission reported on the subject of Army and Navy Chaplains, stating that it had concentrated its efforts during the three years upon the increase of navy chaplains and on changing the law in order that the best grade of men might be chosen for the purpose. It is stated that in 1842 the number of navy chaplains allowed by law was placed at 24. Since then the navy has fought three wars, has increased tenfold in ships and in men without a single increase in the number of chaplains which was still 24. The commission, working with official representatives of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the Roman Catholic Church, and others, urged the adoption of a bill to increase the number of chaplains gradually until the ratio should be that of one chaplain for every 1,000 men and officers and making other provisions in regard to the matter. The bill proposed was finally adopted by Congress except that the ratio of chaplains was reduced to one for 1,250 men.

CHURCH PENSION FUND

A canon on this subject was adopted according to which the Church Pension Fund becomes a part of the recognized machinery of the Church. It provides that General Convention shall elect at each session after 1916, six persons to serve as trustees for a term of nine years, while the General Convention of 1916 should choose 18 such persons in three grades of service for three, six, and nine years respectively. Royalties arising from publications authorized by General Convention and dues levied upon and collected from parishes, congregations, societies, etc., are to be payable to such fund.

The rule as to distribution of the pensions is adopted as follows:

"§V. To every clergyman who, at an age which the Church Pension Fund shall ascertain and determine to be the usual age of ordination, shall be ordained in this Church or received into this Church from another Church, and who shall remain in continuous service in the office and work of the ministry of this Church, and in respect of whom the conditions of this canon shall have been fulfilled, the Church Pension Fund shall make a retiring allowance of at least $600 a year, Provided, however, that the Board of Trustees shall have power to establish such maximum of annuities greater than $2,000 as shall be agreeable to sound actuarial practice. In the case of a clergyman who at the time of his ordination or reception shall be older than such usual age of ordination, the Church Pension Fund shall determine his retiring allowance, upon fulfillment of the other conditions of this canon, at a rate consistent with proper actuarial practices. Subject to the provisions of this canon, the general principle shall be observed in allotting pensions that there shall be an actuarial relation between the several assessments and the several benefits."

CONSTITUTION, AMENDMENTS TO

Final action was taken amending Article 1, Section 7, of the Constitution so as to provide that General Convention shall be held on the Wednesday after the first Sunday in October of the triennial years.

Also making a verbal change in Article 9 relating to the place of trial of a clergyman.

New amendments to the Constitution were tentatively adopted requiring ratification at the next General Convention as follows:

An amendment to Article 1, Section 2, providing that bishops elected to an office provided for by General Convention shall have a vote in the House of Bishops.

An amendment to Article 1, Section 3, providing for an elective presiding bishop. "Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop" the House of Bishops is to choose a successor by a majority vote, which choice is to be confirmed by the House of Deputies. His term and tenure of office and his duties are to be prescribed by the canons of General Convention. If a vacancy shall occur in the presiding bishopric between Conventions the senior bishop in order of consecration having jurisdiction within the United States is to become Presiding Bishop until an election can be held.

Article 2 is amended by the insertion of a new section described as Section 5, providing that a diocese may provide that a suffragan bishop may have charge of a diocese during a vacancy in the episcopate or during the disability or absence of the bishop.

Article 4 amended in order to make the foregoing provision as to suffragan bishops effective.

Article 9 amended to provide that in the event of the trial of a clergyman it shall be lawful for General Convention to prescribe by canon for a change of venue.

DAY OF REST

It was resolved: "that this General Convention affirms its profound conviction that one day in seven for rest is a divine law for humanity, and is an inalienable right of every man and every woman."

FAITH AND ORDER OF THE CHURCH, JOINT COMMISSION FOR WORLD CONFERENCE ON

The report of the Joint Commission showed that communions representing a large part of Christendom had already given their approval to the work of the Joint Commission and were associated formally with that commission. No formal approach, however, has yet been made to the Roman Catholic and the Holy Orthodox Eastern Churches, and those on the continent of Europe. though "correspondence with eminent dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church and of the Holy Orthodox Eastern Church of Russia, and with distinguished members of the Protestant churches on the continent of Europe, and favorable comment on the project by ecclesiastical reviews of the Russian Church, the Greek Church in Athens and in Alexandria, and of the Roman Catholic Church in Spain, give ground for hope that, when peace is established, we shall have the coöperation of most, if not all, of the Churches of Europe and the East. His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV., through Cardinal Gasparri, has expressed his deep interest in the movement and has promised his prayers for its guidance."

A plan had been devised to send a commission to Europe for the purpose of securing the co-operation of these Churches, but the war, breaking out a few days before the deputation had intended to sail, prevented their mission. A preliminary conference had been held at Garden City, Long Island, in January, 1916, at which most of the North American communions were represented, and at which preliminary action looking toward a really world-wide conference was taken.

HOLY MATRIMONY

While action recommended by the Joint Commission on Legislation on Matters Relating to Holy Matrimony failed by a small majority in the House of Deputies, the basic principles underlying the Church's views of holy matrimony as stated by the commission are well worthy of permanent incorporation into the standards of the Church. They are as follows:

"1. (The Law of Marriage.)

"Marriage, according to God's design, to which we are recalled by our Lord Jesus Christ, is life-long union of one man with one woman, to the exclusion of all others on either side.

"2. (The Purposes of Marriage.)

"Marriage is intended for the mutual companionship and support of husband and wife in good and evil estate; for the procreation of children; and for their nurture and training. To ignore or defeat any of these purposes is a sinful violation of God's institution.

"3. (The Essence of Marriage.)

"The essence of marriage consists in the consent of the parties to live permanently one with another as husband and wife. Civil law requires for purposes of legal recognition that this consent shall be expressed under certain conditions.

"The Christian Church solemnizes a marriage with appropriate rites of benediction.

"4. (Conditions of Marriage.)

"The conditions of a lawful marriage laid down by the civil authority must be complied with before the Church may solemnize a marriage.

"The Church may impose further conditions for its benediction and sanction."

HYMNAL

A new Hymnal was adopted and placed in the hands of the Church Pension Fund for publication, royalties to be applied to the income of that fund.

INTEMPERANCE, EVILS FROM

The following declaration on the subject was adopted:

"WHEREAS, The seriousness and gravity of life at this time call for the highest expression of clear thinking and personal self-control on the part of every Christian, that the momentous problems of the hour may be righteously solved, and the tremendous crisis in human affairs be faced with sanity and moral sufficiency; be it

"Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That this Convention, sensible of the great evils resulting from intemperance in the use of alcoholic liquor, appeals to all the people of the Church to set the example of temperance and self-control by refraining from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage at all public functions and social gatherings."

[See also TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.]

MISSIONARY ORGANIZATION

Considerable change was made in the canon incorporating the constitution of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society. Most important in these changes is the provision that at each subsequent General Convention the Board of Missions shall submit a budget for the ensuing year and also a provisional estimate for each of the succeeding two years. The report of the Board with this budget and estimate are to be considered by the two houses in joint session, beginning on the first Monday of the Convention and continuing for three consecutive days, or until the budget and estimate have been disposed of and consideration given to the general questions of missionary policy and action.

ORDINATION, CANONS OF

Memorials asking for the thorough revision of the canons of ordination were presented from the General Board of Religious Education and also from the examining chaplains of the Province of Washington. In the House of Bishops a serious attempt was made to revise these canons, but the proposed revision failed of adoption in the House of Deputies. The report and proposed legislation were afterwards referred to the General Board of Religious Education, while later it was determined that a joint commission should be appointed to consider the whole subject and report to the next General Convention.

PRAYER BOOK REVISION

Much of the time of General Convention was devoted to the subject of Prayer Book revision. The provisions tentatively adopted are stated in condensed form in a special article immediately following this section.

PROTESTANT REFORMATION, FOUR HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF

A request from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America was made for the appointment of a coöperating committee by this Church for the celebration of the anniversary mentioned. The request was presented in the House of Bishops and no action taken upon it.

RACIAL EPISCOPATE

Though no amendment of the canons making provision on this subject was enacted, a joint resolution provided: "That in our judgment the suffragan episcopate, participated in by a diocese, a province, or a group of dioceses, affords the best method of providing for a racial episcopate."

REPRESENTATION IN HOUSE OF DEPUTIES

A committee appointed by the General Convention of 1913 reported a changed system of representation in the House of Deputies whereby each diocese should be entitled to representation by three presbyters and three laymen, and in addition thereto by one deputy in each order for each 100 clergymen or major fraction thereof entitled to seat and vote in the diocesan convention, provided that no diocese shall be entitled to representation by more than six presbyters and six laymen. The proposition was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

SOCIAL LEGISLATION

The following declaration was made by resolution of both Houses:

"Resolved, That the service of the community and the welfare of the workers, not primarily private profit, should be the aim of every industry and its justification; and that the Church should seek to keep this aim constantly before the mind of the public; and that Christians and individuals are under the common obligation, on the one hand, conscientiously to scrutinize the sources of their income, and, on the other hand, to give moral support and prayer to every just effort to secure fair conditions and regular employment for wage-earners and the extension of true democracy to industrial matters."

STANDARDS OF LIVING

The following preambles and resolutions were adopted:

"WHEREAS, There is a conspicuous laxity in the observance of those wholesome moral laws which should govern the conduct of the social life and practices of the people of this nation, manifesting itself in the increasing tendency to divorce and in a Sunday disesteemed and dishonored; and

"WHEREAS, Ostentatious luxury and prodigal extravagance mark in a vulgar and flagrant way the life of our age, creating false standards of living, and tending to make more evident the cleavage between rich and poor; and

"WHEREAS, The awful tragedy of Europe calls for and demands a sober and searching examination of the standards of our individual and corporate life; therefore be it

"Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That this Church in Convention assembled solemnly places itself on record as standing resolutely and unfailingly for simpler and more wholesome standards of living in family and social life, the highest and holiest recognition and maintenance of marital vows, and greater justice and equity in all the relations of our industrial life; and furthermore be it

"Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That this Convention urges upon clergy and laity alike throughout the Church, by precept and example, the rigid observance in all social habits and practices of those Christian principles which make for sobriety, purity, and holiness in the life of the people."

STATISTICS OF THE CHURCH

A new canon 49 was adopted, making radical changes in regard to the collection of statistics of the Church. New blank forms were adopted and the year to be comprised within every report is the kalendar year. There are to be reported by each parish the numbr of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials during the year, the total number of baptized persons and of communicants, a summary of all receipts and expenditures, a statement of the property, real and personal, held by the parish, and of indebtedness carried, and the amount of insurance.

The secretary of each convention is to forward to the secretary of the House of Deputies annually a summary of the information contained in the parish reports in his diocese showing an accurate total of each of these items.

TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.

The following preambles and resolution were adopted in both houses:

"WHEREAS, Our age is witnessing vast and universal readjustment with reference to the manufacture and sale of liquor, and

"WHEREAS, It is generally recognized that the saloon has become more and more a menace to the best interests of our corporate and industrial life; therefore be it

"Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That this Church places itself on record as favoring such action in our legislative assemblies as will conserve the largest interest of temperance and the repression of the liquor traffic."

[See also INTEMPERANCE, EVILS FROM.]

Revision of the Prayer Book

The subject of the revision of the Prayer Book occupied much of the time in both houses of the General Convention of 1916. As stated by the secretary of the House of Deputies in his communication to the dioceses, the following amendments were tentatively adopted, requiring final ratification by the next General Convention.

MORNING PRAYER

The exhortation may be omitted on Sundays as well as on other days.

The provision that when Holy Communion is immediately to follow Morning Prayer the minister may pass from the sentences to the Lord's Prayer is extended also to cover all week-days, save days of fasting and abstinence.

An extended list of new sentences for the opening of Morning Prayer is provided.

The alternative form of Absolution is omitted, but reference is made to its place in Holy Communion and it remains lawful to use it at this place.

The Venite may be omitted on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Omit the rubric providing for use of the Gloria in Excelsis in Morning Prayer.

Print the Te Deum in three portions each beginning with large capitals.

Print the Benedicite similarly in four portions each beginning with large capitals.

Before the Benedicite to be inserted a new canticle, Benedictus es Domine.

After the use of the Te Deum, or any one canticle, if Holy Communion is immediately to follow, the minister may proceed at once to the Communion service.

The following to be substituted for the present Prayer for the President and all in civil authority.

"O Lord, our Governor, whose glory is in all the world; We commend this nation to Thy merciful care, that being guided by Thy Providence we may dwell secure in thy peace. Grant to the President of the United States, and to all in authority, wisdom and strength to know and to do thy will. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness; and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in thy fear; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen."

The General Thanksgiving "may be said by the congregation with the minister." [The same provision as to Evening Prayer.]

EVENING PRAYER

Omit the reference to "days other than Lord's day" in the opening rubric.

A new series of sentences.

In place of the present alternative form of Absolution insert the following:

"The Almighty and merciful God grant you Absolution and Remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Omit the provision for omitting the Cantate on the 19th day of the month and of the Deus Misereatur on the 12th day of the month.

THE USE OF THE PSALTER

In place of the tables of Proper Psalms and Selections of Psalms a new series of "Proper Psalms for seasons and days," a "Table of Psalms for Special Occasions," and a series of twenty-eight "Selections of Psalms" is adopted.

PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS

The following new prayers were adopted:

For Courts of Justice.

"Almighty God, who sittest in the throne judging right; We humbly beseech thee to bless the courts of justice and the magistrates in all this land; and give unto them the spirit of wisdom and understanding that they may discern the truth, and impartially administer the law in the fear of thee alone; through him who shall come to be our judge, thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen."

In Time of Calamity.

"O God, merciful and compassionate, who art ever ready to hear the prayers of those who put their trust in thee; Graciously hearken to us who call upon thee, and grant us thy help in this our need; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

For the Army.

"O Lord God of Hosts, stretch forth, we pray thee, thine almighty arm to strengthen and protect the soldiers of our country; support them in the day of battle, and in the time of peace keep them safe from all evil; endue them with courage and loyalty; and grant that in all things they may serve without reproach; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

For the Navy.

"O Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens, and rulest the raging of the sea; Vouchsafe to take into thy almighty and most gracious protection our country's Navy, and all who serve therein. Preserve them from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy; that they may be a safeguard unto the United States of America, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their lawful occasions; that the inhabitants of our land may in peace and quietness serve thee our God; to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Memorial Days.

"O Almighty God, God of the spirits of all flesh; We give thee thanks for all those who have laid down their lives for home and country; And we commend them to thy fatherly care and protection, beseeching thee that we, with them, may have our portion in the life of the world to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

For Religious Education.

"Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who hast committed to thy Holy Church the care and nurture of thy children; Enlighten with thy wisdom those who teach and those who learn, that, rejoicing in the knowledge of thy truth, they may worship thee and serve thee from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

For Children.

"O Lord Jesus Christ, who dost embrace children with the arms of thy mercy, and dost make them living members of thy Church; Give them grace, we pray thee, to stand fast in thy faith, to obey thy word, and to abide in thy love; that being made strong by thy Holy Spirit they may resist temptation and overcome evil; and may rejoice in the life that now is, and dwell with thee in the life that is to come; through thy merits, O merciful Saviour, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen."

"Add after the prayer, For a Sick Child, pages 42, 43, the following:

"Or this

"O Almighty God and Merciful Father, look down from heaven, we humbly beseech thee, upon the sick child for whom our prayers are desired. Visit him, O Lord, with thy salvation, deliver him from his bodily pain and grant him the blessing of health, that he may live to thee and to thy glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

A Bidding Prayer Which may be used before Sermons, or on Special Occasions.

"Good Christian People, I bid your prayers for Christ's Holy Catholic Church, the blessed company of all faithful people; that it may please God to confirm and strengthen it in purity of faith, in holiness of life, and in perfectness of love, and to restore to it the witness of visible unity; and more especially for that branch of the same planted by God in this land, whereof we are members; that in all things it may work according to God's will, serve him faithfully, and worship him acceptably.

"Ye shall pray for the President of the United States, and for the Governor of this State, and for all that are in authority; that all, and every one of them, may serve truly in their several callings to the glory of God, and the edifying and well-governing of the people, remembering the account they shall be called upon to give at the last great day.

"Ye shall also pray for the ministers of God's Holy Word and Sacraments; for Bishops (and herein more especially for the Bishop of this diocese), that they minister faithfully and wisely the discipline of Christ; likewise for all priests and deacons (and herein more especially for the clergy here residing), that they may shine as lights in the world, and in all things may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour.

"And ye shall pray for a due supply of persons fitted to serve God in the Ministry and in the State; and to that end, as well as for the good education of all the youth of this land, ye shall pray for all schools, colleges, and seminaries of sound and godly learning, and for all whose hands are open for their maintenance; that whatsoever tends to the advancement of true religion and useful learning may forever flourish and abound.

"Ye shall pray for all the people of these United States, that they may live in the true faith and fear of God, and in brotherly charity one towards another.

"Ye shall pray also for all who travel by land or sea; for all prisoners and captives; for all who are in sickness or in sorrow; for all who have fallen into grievous sins; for all who, through temptation, ignorance, helplessness, grief, trouble, dread, or the near approach of death, especially need our prayers.

"Ye shall also praise God for rain and sunshine; for the fruits of the earth; for the products of all honest industry; and for all his good gifts temporal and spiritual, to us and to all men.

"Finally, ye shall yield unto God most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all his saints, who have been the choice vessels of his grace and the light of the world in their several generations; and pray unto God, that we may have grace to direct our lives after their good examples; that, this life ended, we may be made partakers with them of the glorious resurrection, and the life everlasting.

"And now, brethren, summing up all our petitions, and all our thanksgivings, in the words which Christ hath taught us, we make bold to say,

"Our Father, etc.

"¶Note, That the minister in his discretion may omit any of the clauses in the foregoing Bidding Prayer, or may add others, as occasion may require."

At the end of the Prayers and Thanksgivings, preceding them by the Title, COLLECTS, insert the Collects now appearing on pages 239 and 240, together with the following which shall appear first in order:

"O Lord Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins, but the faith of thy Church; and grant to it, that peace and unity which is according to thy will; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen."

ARKANSAS, DIOCESE OF

The Annual Council assembled at St. Mark's Church, Hope, Ark., elected two Suffragan Bishops, one white and one negro, the negro Suffragan being intended for the entire Province of the Southwest. This latter election was in obedience to the suggestion of the provincial synod, and it was expected that the salary of the colored Suffragan would be paid by the General Board of Missions.

The white Suffragan was first elected. The clergy on the third ballot nominated the Ven. Edwin Warren Saphoré, Archdeacon of Arkansas, and he was elected by the laity. The candidates for election were as follows: The Ven. Edwin Warren Saphoré, the Rev. Hanson A. Stowell, the Rev. Walter E. Bentley, the Rev. E. W. Gamble, the Rev. Albert R. Llwyd. Mr. Llwyd immediately withdrew his name. The ballot of the clergy resulted:

	1st	2nd	3rd
Ven. E. W. Saphoré	7	7	9
Rev. H. A. Stowell	3	5	5
Rev. W. E. Bentley	4	3	1
Rev. E. W. Gamble	1	0	0

Necessary to choice, 9.

Of the lay vote, the Rev. E. W. Saphoré received thirteen, with three opposing votes.

The Bishop-elect accepted his election and was consecrated Suffragan Bishop on St. Bartholomew's Day, 1917.

The negro Suffragan was next elected, the candidates being Archdeacon James S. Russell, Archdeacon Thomas Demby, the Rev. George F. Bragg, Jr., D.D., and Archdeacon Daniel E. Johnson. Archdeacon Johnson immediately withdrew his name, speaking most highly of the three candidates, and requesting the honor of sending the telegram after the election to the chosen candidate. The ballot resulted as follows:

Clergy: Archdeacon Russell, 9; Archdeacon Demby, 5; Rev. Dr. Bragg, 2.

Laity: Archdeacon Russell, 17; Archdeacon Demby, 3.

Archdeacon Russell's election was made unanimous.

The diocese of Arkansas, in the election of a negro Suffragan, carried out the resolution of the synod of the Province of the Southwest. While the Suffragan's official relationship was to be with the diocese of Arkansas, all colored congregations in the Southwest were to be served by him under the direction of their respective diocesans.

ATLANTA, DIOCESE OF

The diocese mourns the loss of her first Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Cleland Kinloch Nelson, third Bishop of Georgia and first Bishop of Atlanta, who entered into rest on February 13, 1917, but eleven days before the twenty-fifth anniversary of his consecration. His funeral took place on February 17th, at the Cathedral in Atlanta. At the annual Council which met in Macon, Ga., on April 18th, the Rev. Robert S. Coupland, D.D., rector of Trinity Church, New Orleans, La., was elected Bishop of Atlanta, on the seventeenth ballot.

The following is the vote on the first and on the effective ballot:

	1st		17th
	C	L	C	L
Votes cast	28	..	29	18⅓
Necessary to choice	15	..	15	9⅓

Bunting	1	1	..	..
Coupland	..	..	26	18⅓
Whittaker	..	..	..	..
L. B. Richards	..	..	..	..

Following Dr. Coupland's declination, the Standing Committee called a second special session of the council, which met at St. Philip's Cathedral, Atlanta, on June 26th, to elect a diocesan.

On the second ballot the Rev. Harry J. Mikell, D.D., rector of Christ Church, Nashville, Tenn., was elected Bishop of Atlanta by a concurrent majority of clergy and laity. On motion of the Rev. Dr. Wilmer, rector of St. Luke's Church, Atlanta, the election was made unanimous by a rising vote.

Immediately preceding the election the council went into committee of the whole for conference, at which the names of Dr. Mikell and the Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin, D.D., of Rochester, N. Y., were presented. The committee having risen, and the council having assembled, prayer was offered by the president, the Rev. Charles H. Lee, of Macon, after which nominations were made without nominating speeches. Dr. Mikell's name was presented by the Rev. S. A. Wragg, rector of Trinity Church, Columbus; the Rev. Dr. Goodwin was nominated by the Rev. Charles H. Lee; and the Rev. Henry D. Phillips, chaplain of the University of the South, by the Rev. Thomas Duck. The result of the balloting was as follows:

	1st		2nd
	C	L	C	L
Votes cast	27	19⅔	27	20
Necessary to choice	14	10	14	10⅓

Phillips	3	1	3	1
Wilmer	7	1⅔	1	1⅔
Blank	..	2	..	2

The Bishop-elect has accepted his election and his consecration was fixed for All Saints' Day, 1917.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

Following the Cleveland convention of 1916 an intensive campaign was undertaken in the New York Metropolitan district, including the dioceses of New York, Long Island, Newark, and part of New Jersey. The result was the formation of twenty-nine active and fifty probationary chapters, the increase of attendance at church services and Bible classes, and the awakening of new interest wherever work was undertaken.

After the first of January a similar campaign in the diocese of Pennsylvania and a part of the diocese of New Jersey was attended by like good results, twenty-seven chapters being formed and twenty-three on probation. In the diocese of Pittsburgh, where a campaign was undertaken by the local leaders unaided by the national secretaries, six active chapters were established and a number on probation. A similar campaign was conducted in Chicago, resulting in six new chapters.

On September 15th (the date when the fiscal year formerly closed) the quota amounted to $6,125.13 as against $5,493.90 received from quota and subscriptions to St. Andrew's Cross for the same period last year, showing a substantial increase in spite of adverse war conditions. But pledges for the Brotherhood fund showed a slight decrease, being $14,003 as against $14,842 for the previous year.

With the entrance of our country into the war there opened up a wide field for useful and needed service. After a conference with Bishop Brent and other leading bishops and laymen, it was decided to appoint at least four secretaries to go from camp to camp to organize small groups of men to act as centers of influence for clean living and strong Christian manhood, and to get our men in touch with one another and with local churches—the secretaries to coöperate fully and closely with chaplains and Y. M. C. A. The Presiding Bishop, to whom it was submitted, approved the plan. The Southern secretary, Benjamin F. Finney, was called from his field and made chief secretary for Army and Navy work, with headquarters at the National office. The work must be broadened; and, in addition to the four field secretaries, a resident secretary must be placed in all the cantonments and larger camps, some forty-two in number. To carry this into effect it is estimated that it would require a budget of $100,000 for the first year.

BURLESON, HUGH LATIMER, D.D.,

Fourth Missionary Bishop of South Dakota, is one of the five sons of the Rev. Solomon Stevens and Abigail (Pomeroy) Burleson, all of whom entered the ministry of the Church. Born in Northfield, Minn., April 25, 1865, he was graduated from Racine College twenty-two years later, and in 1893 obtained his bachelor's degree from the General Theological Seminary. Bishop Grafton ordained him deacon in 1893, and he was advanced to the priesthood the following year by Bishop Paret, having served his diaconate in the Church of the Holy Communion, New York City. He was rector of the church at Waupaca, Wis., from 1894 to 1898, and then returned to the East as assistant for two years at St. Luke's Church, Rochester, N. Y. He was Dean of Gethsemane Cathedral, Fargo, N. D., from 1900 until he became secretary of the Board of Missions in 1907. In this capacity he came into intimate touch with the world-wide work of the Church. His book, The Conquest of the Continent, is very widely used in the mission study classes of the Church. He was married in 1894 to Miss Helen S. Ely of New York.

His consecration took place in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City on December 14, 1916. Those taking part in the laying on of hands were the Presiding Bishop, the Bishops of Minnesota, New York, Massachusetts, Delaware, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, the Bishop Coadjutor of Missouri, and Bishop Lloyd. The sermon was preached by the latter.

CHICAGO, DIOCESE OF

A special Convention assembled on October 31, 1916, at the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul in Chicago, elected as Suffragan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Sheldon M. Griswold, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Salina. The vote on the three ballots was as follows:

	1st	2nd	3rd
Total votes cast	98	99	101
Necessary for choice	50	50	51
Rt. Rev. S. M. Griswold, D.D.	36	45	57
Rev. George C. Stewart, L.H.D.	23	22	22
Rev. Charles H. Young	29	29	21
Rev. N. O. Hutton	5	1	..
Rev. E. J. Randall	2	1	1
Rev. J. H. Edwards	1	..	..
Rev. F. E. Brandt	2	1	..

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Stewart, seconded by the Rev. C. H. Young, the election was made unanimous, and the Bishop appointed Dr. Stewart, Mr. Young, and Mr. W. R. Stirling a committee to advise Bishop Griswold of his election.

The installation of the new Suffragan took place on January 8, 1917, the fourteenth anniversary of his consecration as a Bishop in the Church of God.

CHURCH PENSION FUND, THE

The largest financial achievement of the Church was accomplished during the year under the leadership of Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts. The campaign to raise an initial reserve for the Church Pension Fund, which began about Washington's Birthday, 1916, ended on February 28, 1917. The Trustees of the Church Pension Fund asked for $5,000,000. They received $8,721,000, on which over $5,000,000 had been paid in by October 1, 1917. This is probably the largest overflow ever received by a fund which appealed for a great amount of money. The cost of administration, one and three-tenths per cent., provided specifically beforehand, is probably unprecedented up to that time.

Not less notable were the number and the range of contributions. Every diocese was worthily represented. Over 47,000 separate contributions appear upon the books of the Fund, representing five per cent. of the total communicant list of the Church, possibly another unprecedented achievement. In addition to these separate entries, many thousands of persons, probably another fifty thousand or more, contributed through general offerings in their parishes.

The largest contribution was $325,000 from the Carnegie Corporation, with which the Secretary of the Fund was associated for many years. Two Church people gave $250,000 each. Nine gave $100,000 each, and so on. Not less interesting is the fact that nearly one-tenth of the entire subscription was in amounts of less than $100 each.

The General Convention of 1916 enacted a canon (Canon 56) making the payment of the pension assessment, equal to 7½ per cent. of the salaries paid to the clergy, obligatory upon every parish and other ecclesiastical organization. This pension assessment which, together with the Initial Reserve, assures the solvency of the Fund, went into operation upon March 1, 1917. The office of the Fund reports on October 1st that these assessments have been paid remarkably well, there being dioceses in which every parish and mission station has paid in full, thus assuring pension protection to every active clergyman of the diocese and their families.

On March 1, 1917, also, the Trustees of the Church Pension Fund began to pay pensions. On October 1st, the annual pension roll amounted to $203,000. This includes the grants of the General Clergy Relief Fund, which has been merged with the Church Pension Fund and whose obligations have been assumed by the latter. The obligations of many diocesan funds have also been assumed by the Church Pension Fund.

The Church has thus assured, as far as legislation and the unprecedented generosity of individual Churchmen in a campaign can give assurance, pension protection to every clergyman who was in the active service of the Church on March 1, 1917, and to their families. The past grants of the Church are also put upon an assured financial basis. The pension benefits are small in amount at the beginning, but will grow with the process of time. The great achievement of Bishop Lawrence is that the Church has taken the most careful thought to remove the reproach of not providing for the future of the clergy, and has established a system to accomplish that result which, while adjusted to the organization of the Church, is also regarded as a notable specimen of actuarial and pension skill by business corporations.

In 1917 therefore the Church welcomed the Church Pension Fund as one of the important agencies in the ecclesiastical administration.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Church Periodical Club has little to report for the first half of the past year. The regular work went on quietly and steadily, some special effort being made for schools. St. Paul's College, Tokyo, received over a thousand selected books, and text books were furnished for the first high school class at St. Agnes' School, Anking.

A legacy of $1,000 was added to the Endowment Fund.

As soon as war was declared, a special committee on Chaplains' Welfare Work was formed and the service already given to a few Church chaplains in the Army and Navy was extended to all. It has been possible to arrange for the direct sending of some regular magazines as well as for books and periodicals in bulk. Reading matter has been provided for the use of chaplains on the transports, and those who need them are supplied with games, records, lantern slides of hymns and patriotic songs, and other similar material. The chaplains show the keenest appreciation of this form of assistance and ask for its continuance. The Church Periodical Club is therefore urging all Church people to make their contributions of reading matter for soldiers and sailors through the chaplains, giving them the opportunity to benefit their men and the constant assurance that the Church at home is behind them.

DALLAS, DIOCESE OF

At the request of the Bishop of the diocese the annual Council of this diocese, May 8, 1917, entered into an election of a Coadjutor Bishop, and the Very Rev. Harry Tunis Moore, Dean of St. Matthew's Cathedral, Dallas, was elected. Dean Moore accepted his election and was consecrated on October 4, 1917.

ERIE, DIOCESE OF,

having granted a leave of absence to the Rt. Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, Bishop of Erie, he is now serving as Chaplain to the University of Pennsylvania Base Hospital Unit No. 20, desires that the clergy generally send to him and the chaplains of the various regiments the names of all our young men ordered to the front in France.

EDSALL, RT. REV. SAMUEL COOK, D.D.,

second Bishop of Minnesota, died February 17, 1917. He was the son of James K. and Caroline Florella Edsall, and was born at Dixon, Ill., March 4, 1860. He received early training in the Church from Churchly parents. His father was vestryman or senior warden of the parish at Dixon from 1856 until his removal from its limits in 1879, was Attorney General of Illinois from 1873 to 1881, and deputy to General Convention from the undivided diocese of Illinois in 1877. The Bishop was both baptized and confirmed by Bishop Whitehouse. He entered Racine College in 1873, remaining six years, and then entered upon the study of law in his father's office in Chicago, and was admitted to the bar in March, 1882. In 1883 he married Miss Grace Harmon of Chicago, the present Bishop of Iowa officiating at the ceremony. He became a lay reader at the Home of Incurables in 1885, and was superintendent of the Sunday school at the mission of St. James' Church, now the parish of St. Chrysostom's. In 1886 he became a candidate for orders, and entered the Western Theological Seminary in the first junior class, graduating in 1889. In May, 1887, in conjunction with his friend, the Rev. F. W. Keator, now the Bishop of Olympia, he began the mission work on North Clark street, which afterward grew into the parish of St. Peter's. In the frame chapel, which was built for this work in 1888, Mr. Edsall was ordained by Bishop McLaren to the diaconate, on December 23rd of the same year. He was advanced to the priesthood in the same chapel, by the same Bishop, on May 2, 1889, and continued in the work of building up St. Peter's parish. A new site was obtained in 1890, and the present beautiful church was built in 1894-5. Mr. Edsall received the degree of D.D. from Illinois College, Jacksonville, in 1898. He was elected Missionary Bishop of North Dakota by the General Convention of 1898, and consecrated in St. Peter's Church, Chicago, on St. Paul's Day, January 25, 1899. In 1901 he was translated to the diocese of Minnesota, following the death of Bishop Whipple.

GENERAL CONVENTION

[See page 56.]

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY IN AMERICA

The G. F. S. A. reported on May 1, 1917, a total membership of 51,755 persons enrolled in 905 parochial branches; there are 41 diocesan organizations, and work in 23 other dioceses. The amount of money reported, $135,906.98, which is really much less than the total amount raised, is remarkable in an organization more than four-fifths of whose membership is composed of young girls and children, and the fact that $52,307.17, or two-fifths of the whole, was given for purposes entirely outside of the Society, bespeaks great generosity and interest in social, philanthropic, and missionary undertakings, more than $14,000 in boxes and money having been sent to the mission fields. The number of individuals confirmed during the year was 1,656.

There are 20 Holiday Houses in as many dioceses, 9 lodges, and several rest and lunch rooms. These provide safe homes and the opportunity for happy, health-giving vacations for a large number of girls, many of whom are outside the Society.

War relief work of every kind has been done. Sewing, knitting, the making of bandages and other hospital supplies have been undertaken in nearly every branch, and in many, gardening, preserving, etc., has been carried one. In New York, War Service Headquarters have been open since the early summer, for work, advice, registration, and recreation. During the past year, through the Social Service Department, the rent for a house for munition workers in Hereford, England, was given by the G. F. S. A.

The Society is growing in strength and extent, and must during and after the war win wider recognition than ever before, since its four "cornerstones", purity, dutifulness, faithfulness, and thrift, are beginning to be recognized, not only as admirable individual virtues, but as indispensible national qualities, upon the existence of which the welfare of the country must depend.

GROSVENOR, VERY REV. WILLIAM MERCER, D.D.,

Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, died suddenly on Saturday afternoon, December 9, 1916, of heart disease, while taking exercise in a gymnasium. His last public service was the reading of the gospel at the consecration of the Seamen's Institute chapel a few hours before his death.

William Mereer Grosvenor was born in New London, Conn., June 22, 1863, the son of Samuel H. and Maria S. Grosvenor. He was graduated at Williams College with the degree of A.B. in 1885 and at the Berkeley Divinity School in 1888. He afterwards received the degree of D.D. from New York University and from Williams College. He was ordained deacon immediately after his graduation in 1888 and priest a year later, Bishop John Williams admitting him to the former and Bishop Littlejohn to the latter order. He began his ministry as assistant at Grace Church, Brooklyn. In 1890 he entered upon the rectorship of Trinity Church, Lenox, Mass., and in 1895 became rector of the Church of the Incarnation, New York. Since 1911 he has been Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in the metropolitan diocese. Dr. Grosvenor had been a member and at times president of the Standing Committee of the diocese; he had also been a deputy to each General Convention since 1901. Dr. Grosvenor was connected with many religious and other organizations, being a trustee of Williams College, of Barnard College, of the General Theological Seminary, of the Berkeley Divinity School, and of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. He was greatly revered and a priest of much distinction. Dr. Grosvenor was unmarried.

HART, REV. SAMUEL, D.D.,

Dean of Berkeley Divinity School and Secretary to the House of Bishops of the American Church, entered into rest, after a brief illness, on February 25, 1917. Dr. Hart was born at Saybrook, Conn., June 4, 1845, the son of Henry and Mary Ann Witter Hart. Although he has been a resident of Middletown for nearly a score of years, Hartford never lost the feeling that he belonged there. From the time he entered Trinity College in the fall of 1862 until he went to Berkeley Divinity School in 1899 to serve as Professor of Doctrinal Theology and the Prayer Book and later as Vice-Dean and then Dean, he was one whom that city delighted to number among its honored sons. He was graduated from Trinity College in the class of 1866, receiving his Master's degree from the same college three years later. Twice his alma mater admitted him to the doctorate, once in 1885 (D.D.) and again in 1899 (D.C.L.). Both Yale and Wesleyan conferred upon him the doctor's degree, the former that of Doctor of Divinity in 1902, and the latter that of Doctor of Laws in 1909.

Dr. Hart was ordered deacon June 2, 1869, by Bishop John Williams and advanced to the priesthood by the same Bishop the following year. From that time until 1899 when he came to Berkeley he was a member of the faculty of Trinity College, first as tutor and later as assistant professor and professor of mathematics, until finally in 1883 he was placed in charge of the Latin Department, where he remained until he removed to Middletown. He has served as Dean of Berkeley since 1908. Since 1886 Dr. Hart served the Church as custodian of the Standard Prayer Book. In 1892 he was elected secretary of the House of Bishops, which position he held at his death. In 1898 he was elected historiographer and register of the Church. He has written widely on a varied list of subjects, the majority of which have had to do with the Church and History of his native state. Bishop Seabury's Communion Office, with notes, was published in 1874, Maclear's Instruction for Confirmation and Holy Communion, in 1895, the History of the American Prayer Book in Frere's Proctor, in 1901 (an edition of which is also in type for the blind), Short Daily Prayers for Families, in 1902, the History of the American Book of Common Prayer, in 1910, Faith and the Faith (the Bohlen lectures), in 1914. Early in his career at Trinity he had published the Satires of Juvenal and the Satires of Persius.

Dr. Hart was a member of the American Philological Association, of which he was president in 1892, the American Oriental Society, the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, and the American Historical Association. He has been president of the Connecticut Historical Society since 1900. In 1894 he served the Connecticut Library Association as president. He was a member of the New Haven Colony Historical Society, the American Antiquarian Society, the Society of Colonial Wars, and a member of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity, of which he has been a senator since 1892. In his undergraduate days he was a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity at Trinity.

Dr. Hart was a trustee of the Wadsworth Athenaeum, the Watkinson Library, the Colt bequest, and was president of the Good Will Club of Hartford. He was the Paddock lecturer at Trinity for 1915-16.

IOWA, DIOCESE OF

At the annual convention, May 20-22, the status of the Suffragan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. H. S. Longley, D.D., was by resolution changed to that of Bishop Coadjutor. The vote taken on the motion to change the status was: Clerical: ayes, 30, nays, 4; lay, ayes, 50, nays 8. This vote was subsequently ratified as constituting an election by a majority of the bishops and standing committees of the Church.

KANSAS, DIOCESE OF,

mourns the death of her third Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Frank R. Millspaugh, who entered into rest on November 22, 1916. His funeral took place in the unfinished Cathedral, and his body will rest in a vault specially prepared for it in the chancel, immediately beneath the spot where the altar will be erected. His Coadjutor-Bishop of less than a month, the Rt. Rev. James Wise, now becomes the Diocesan.

LAMBETH CONFERENCE

is indefinitely postponed according to the following communication from the Archbishop of Canterbury to the Metropolitans of the Anglican Communion throughout the world:

"Lambeth Palace, S. E., February 28, 1917.

"After a communication with the metropolitans of our Church throughout the world, including the Presiding Bishop of the Church of the United States, and after consulting also the English diocesan bishops, on the occasion of a meeting held for other purposes at Lambeth Palace, I write in accordance with promise respecting the date of the next Lambeth Conference. The opinion of bishops in different parts of the world is practically unanimous, to the effect that it would be difficult if not impossible to hold the Lambeth Conference as intended in 1918.

"It is my duty accordingly to intimate that the Conference will not be held next year. Whether it can be held, as I hope, in 1919 must depend upon conditions which are still uncertain. The matter will be constantly before me and before such members of the Consultative Body as are within reach. And I will circulate a further intimation as soon as I am in a position to do so."

LOUISIANA, DIOCESE OF

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Sessums was celebrated at Christ Church Cathedral, New Orleans, on Sunday, November 26, 1916. A complimentary dinner was tendered to the Bishop by the Diocesan Church Club the following day. The Bishop was the recipient of numerous gifts from the clergy and laity, and other diocesan organizations.

McELWAIN, RT. REV. FRANK ARTHUR, D.D.,

since 1912 Suffragan Bishop of Minnesota, was on May 23, 1917, elected Bishop of the diocese in succession to Bishop Edsall, who died on the 17th of last February. He is the first Suffragan of the American Church to be honored with such an election.

Bishop McElwain is an alumnus of Trinity College, Hartford (B.A. '99; M.A. '02), and of the Seabury Divinity School (B.D. '02; D.D. '12). He received his orders at the hands of Bishop Atwill in 1902 and 1903, and his first work in the ministry was in Neosho, Mo., where he was in charge of St. John's Church. He was afterward missionary at Trinity Church, Marshall, and rector of St. John's Church, Springfield. In 1905 he was called from the diocese of Kansas City (West Missouri) to become instructor of Old and New Testament Exegesis at Seabury Divinity School, Faribault, Minn. In two years he became warden of the school, and later Dean of the Cathedral of Our Merciful Saviour. Five years afterward he was elected Suffragan Bishop, on the 23rd of May, 1912; and on the fifth anniversary of that election the diocesan council signified its will that he should become the ecclesiastical head of the diocese.

MARQUETTE, DIOCESE OF,

acting upon the Bishop's request, entered upon the election of a Coadjutor Bishop at the annual Council on May 16, 1917. On a secret ballot, with both orders voting separately, the tellers reported that every ballot was marked for the Very Rev. Francis S. White, Dean of St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral, Grand Rapids, Mich., who was therefore unanimously elected on the first ballot Coadjutor of the diocese. Dean White declined the election.

A second election was held on September 5, 1917, when the Rev. H. H. H. Fox, rector of St. John's Church, Detroit, was elected on the second ballot. On the first ballot the Rev. Mr. Fox received 7 clerical votes and 14 lay votes; the Rev. William Reid Cross 6 clerical and 6 lay votes. As eight clerical and eleven lay votes were necessary to an election there was no vote. On the second ballot the Rev. Mr. Fox received 9 clerical votes and 13 lay, and was declared elected. Mr. Cross immediately moved that the election be made unanimous, which was carried. Mr. Fox subsequently declined his election.

MIKELL, HENRY J., D.D.,

Bishop of Atlanta, was born August 4, 1873, at Sumter, S. C. He is an alumnus of the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn., receiving there the degrees of Master of Arts and Bachelor of Divinity. He was ordained deacon in 1898 and priest in 1899, both by Bishop Capers of South Carolina. From 1899 to 1908 he was rector of the Church of the Holy Communion, Charleston, and from 1906 to 1908 was also head of the Porter Military Academy. In 1908 he became rector of Christ Church, Nashville, the largest parish in the diocese of Tennessee. He was elected Bishop of Atlanta, June 26, 1917, and his consecration was appointed for All Saints' Day.

MILLSPAUGH, RT. REV. FRANK R., D.D.,

third Bishop of Kansas, died on November 22, 1916. He was born April 12, 1848, at Nichols, N. Y. Consecrated Bishop of Kansas in 1895, his diocese at first embraced the whole state. His load was lightened by the creation of the missionary district of Salina in 1902, thus relieving the Bishop of the care of the western part of the state. The necessity for further relief was felt several years ago and he made request for the election of a Coadjutor, which after fruitless attempts finally became successful in the election and consecration of the Rev. James Wise. Bishop Wise now becomes diocesan, having served nominally as Coadjutor for less than a month.

MINISTERS RECEIVED

The following ministers received from other religious bodies have been reported during the period October 1, 1916, to September 30, 1917. The data regarding them are gathered from general and diocesan Church papers and verified as far as they can be from official records given in Convention Journals. Full data are sometimes not given because journals were not at hand previous to the preparation of copy.

No names are included, of course, which have been reported in previous LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL lists:

Brown, Charles Edwin. Ordained deacon, Feb. 11, 1917. Nebraska. Formerly Congregational minister.

Brown, William A. Ordained deacon, June 18, 1917. Western New York. Formerly Methodist minister.

MINNESOTA, DIOCESE OF,

is another of the Dioceses of the American Church to suffer the loss of a Bishop. After a brief and sudden illness the Rt. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D.D., second Bishop of Minnesota, died at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn., on February 17, 1917. At the annual Council of the Diocese on May 23rd, the Rt. Rev. Frank A. McElwain, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese was elected to become its Diocesan. In the informal nominating ballot, of 59 clerical votes cast, Bishop McElwain received 44; Bishop Brent, 11; Rev. John Bagot, 2; Bishop Thomas, 1; blank, 1. Of 206 lay votes cast Bishop McElwain received 117; Bishop Brent, 81; Bishop Thomas, 2; Bishop Thurston, 2; Rev. A. G. Pinkham, 1; Rev. James E. Freeman, D.D., 1; Bishop Faber, 1.

The first ballot resulted as follows:

Clerical vote (58 ballots cast): Bishop McElwain, 48; Bishop Brent, 10. Lay vote (206 ballots cast): Bishop McElwain 137; Bishop Brent, 69.

The election was then made unanimous. A committee of three, consisting of the Rev. W. P. Remington, rector of the parish, the Rev. A. D. Stowe, secretary of the diocese, and Mr. Hector Baxter, notified Bishop McElwain of his election and presented him to the council.

MISSIONS, BOARD OF

Following the wish of General Convention the Board of Missions is gradually bringing its year to end with the Kalendar year. A statement prepared for press in October, therefore, cannot be a complete one. The Board's year ended on September 30th in 1916 and on October 31st in 1917. A general view of its many interests and departments must note progress all along the line. A few of the most conspicuous details are these:

Going to its triennial meeting in St. Louis, October, 1916, the treasurer reported no deficit and a balance on hand of $26,450.

According to a previous pledge of the Board, $50,000 of undesignated legacies was set aside for purely constructive work in the domestic field. This sum was divided as follows:

To Arizona, for an episcopal residence	$ 5,000
To Eastern Oklahoma, toward the debt on the episcopal residence	2,000
To Idaho, for a nurses' home in connection with St. Luke's Hospital, Boise	5,000
To Nevada, for the church at Las Vegas	1,750
To Oklahoma, for the church at Ardmore	2,500
To San Joaquin for St. Luke's Mission, Merced	2,250
To Southern Florida, for the rebuilding of the church at Key West destroyed by a hurricane	5,000
To Spokane, for the new parish house at Pullman	1,500
For the building of a dormitory at St. Paul's School, Walla Walla	2,500
To Utah, toward the debt on the episcopal residence	5,000
To Western Colorado (subject to designation by the new bishop)	1,000
To Mississippi, for the church at Greenville	2,000
To Nebraska, for a church on the Winnebago Reservation	4,000
To North Carolina, for a heating plant at St. Augustine's School, Raleigh	2,500
To South Dakota, for a church at Brookings	3,000
To Western Nebraska, previously appropriated	2,500
	$50,000

The reëlection of Bishop Lloyd as president of the Board of Missions came a few days after the beginning of the new year of 1916-1917. One of the first acts of the president was a suggested re-arrangement of office detail and responsibility, which plan was submitted to the Board at its December, 1916, meeting and, after certain changes, adopted as follows:

Dr. John W. Wood was elected foreign secretary in charge of the newly-created foreign department.

A domestic department was created at the same time, with the president in charge until a domestic secretary is elected.

Latin America was included in one department and placed in charge of Dr. Arthur R. Gray.

The Board took special note of the fact that the editor of the Spirit of Missions—Hugh Latimer Burleson, D.D.—retired to become Bishop of South Dakota. The editorship of the Spirit of Missions was taken over by the president of the Board, with the Rev. Charles E. Betticher as his associate. At a later meeting, Dr. William C. Sturgis was elected educational secretary.

The popular account of the missionary story of the Church is given month by month in the Spirit of Missions, and week by week in the general Church press. Conspicuous among many achievements, however, are the following:

FOREIGN

Purchase of site for the new St. Luke's International Hospital in Tokyo, Japan.

Beginning of building operations on the chapel, academic building, east and west dormitory, of St. Paul's College, Tokyo, Japan.

Laying of the cornerstone (September 22, 1917) of the new Church General Hospital, Wuchang, China.

Pledging of $70,000, through the Woman's Auxiliary, for the new building for St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, Japan, and the raising of the major portion of this great sum.

The question of rate of exchange in China has been a stubborn one, and the Board finally decided at its October, 1917, meeting to guarantee our workers their salary on the basis of $2 Mexican to $1 gold. This is in line with similar action by most other missionary organizations and business houses.

DOMESTIC

Through the gifts from undesignated legacies, many of the domestic districts have been enabled to build or complete much-needed churches, schools, and other buildings.

Dr. Wood—who has charge of the correspondence with Alaska and the Philippine Islands—made an extended trip through Alaska during the summer of 1917. It is the first time in the history of the Alaskan Mission that one of the Board's secretaries has visited the field, and the Church at home as well as in Alaska counted it a very great privilege.

LATIN AMERICA

A decided step forward has been taken in establishing a missionary in residence in the Dominican Republic.

Despite the unprecedented trouble in Mexico, our work has gone on. The question of readjustment of salary has been met here as in Porto Rico and Cuba.

The Southern Cross School, Porto Alegre, Brazil—the only Church school under the Southern Cross—is finished and will soon be self-supporting. There is still some indebtedness on the plant.

The Board has authorized certain specials for Porto Rico, to be divided among a number of places according to definite requests of Bishop Colmore.

Cuba reports an increasing interest on the part of the natives of the island and there have been some additions to the staff.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

At its December, 1916, meeting the Board definitely set aside $25,000 for the Forward Movement. This term includes the general work of making the cause of missions better known in the average diocese and parish. At present there are but four out of a possible eight provincial secretaries. These coöperate with the Rev. Franklin J. Clark, foreign movement secretary.

In conjunction with the central office, one or another of the secretaries has arranged city-wide campaigns. Those which have been held have brought such substantial results that they compel a much larger interest in the future in this particular phase of the work.

THE EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

This department has outlined the usual mission study courses and published books and helps. The sales department is an important branch of the work. It is the means of raising considerable money for one or another of our missions in various parts of the world. Articles made at the mission stations under the direction of competent teachers are sent to the Church Missions House to be sold and the money returned to the missions.

Special emphasis should be placed on the increasing importance of the Lending Library to the whole Church and in particular to the study of the Church's Mission. The library is to-day unique in its completeness and it is constantly being added to so far as the rather meager funds at its disposal will permit.

Lectures and lantern slides are now deposited in each of the eight provinces.

ONE DAY'S INCOME PLAN

The One Day's Income Plan has been continued with gratifying results. More and more Church people are coming to feel this as a yearly recurring privilege. The receipts of this fund for the year ending October 31, 1917, will approximate $120,000.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

After many years of leadership, Miss Julia C. Emery retired from the office of general secretary, and Miss M. G. Lindley was appointed in her place. Other appointments for this year include Mrs. George Biller as a traveling secretary and Miss Frances Withers to take charge of the Junior work. Miss Emily C. Tillotson has been able to return to her work as educational secretary.

The active part which the Woman's Auxiliary took in the matters of missionary interest at St. Louis is a story which has been widely published. During the year the effort of the Auxiliary as a whole has been centered upon the Pilgrimage of Prayer, which began in Maine and has gradually worked its way down and across the country until it has reached all of the states and foreign countries in which we have missions. The reports from everywhere indicate that a very great deal of good has been accomplished by this concerted and particular effort. Aside from the usual interest in the United Offering which is always present, the Woman's Auxiliary has taken an "official" special—the raising of $70,000 for St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, Japan.

THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The chief interest in the Junior Auxiliary during the past year has been focused on the New Junior Plan, which is tremendous in its possibilities. Wherever it has been tried the plan has worked splendidly, and it seems that the time is not far distant when the average Sunday school will feel its missionary responsibility more than it has in the past. This naturally brings us to The Lenten Offering which at the date of going to press looks as if it would total larger than ever before.

MOORE, HARRY TUNIS,

Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of Dallas, was born in Delavan, Wis., October 4, 1873.

Bishop Moore is an alumnus of Hobart College (B.A. '99) and of the Western Theological Seminary. He received his orders, both as deacon and priest, from Bishop Nicholson of Milwaukee in 1902, and began his work as assistant minister at Christ Church, Delavan, Wis., but soon became rector of St. James' Church, Fremont, Nebr., where he remained in charge until 1904. Afterward he held brief charges at St. Mark's Church, San Antonio, Texas; at Grace Church, Chicago; and at Emmanuel Church, Champaign, Ill. He was called to St. Matthew's Cathedral, Dallas, Texas, in 1907. His election as Bishop Coadjutor took place at the annual council of the diocese of Dallas, May 8, 1917. He was consecrated at the Cathedral in Dallas, October 4, 1917. Bishop Tuttle acted as consecrator, assisted by the Bishops of Dallas and Eastern Oklahoma as co-consecrators, while the Bishops of Springfield and West Texas were the presenting bishops. The Bishop of Nebraska was the preacher.

NELSON, RT. REV. CLELAND KINLOCH, D.D.,

who entered into rest February 13, 1917, was third Bishop of Georgia and first Bishop of Atlanta, and was born near Cobham, Va., May 23, 1852. His parents were Keating L. S. Nelson and Julia Rogers Nelson. He was a graduate in Arts of St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., class of 1872, and of Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn., class of 1875 The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by St. John's College in 1891, and by the University of the South in 1892. He was rector of the Church of St. John the Baptist, Germantown, Pa., from 1876 to 1882, and of the Church of the Nativity, South Bethlehem, Pa., from 1882 to 1892, when he was elected Bishop of Georgia in succession to Bishop John W. Beckwith. When the diocese of Georgia was divided, in 1907, he chose to become Bishop of the new diocese of Atlanta.

In the House of Bishops Bishop Nelson was held in high regard. He was one of the most efficient workers in General Convention, never shirking a duty nor failing to discharge a responsibility. At the time of his death he was president of the synod of the Province of Sewanee, an honored member of the Board of Missions, president of the American Church Building Fund Commission, and a member of the Joint Commission on Christian Unity and on the Revision and Enrichment of the Prayer Book.

Bishop Nelson was married June 12, 1877, to Miss Bruce Matthews of Port Tobacco, Md., who survives him.

NEWARK, DIOCESE OF,

at its annual convention, May, 1917, elected the Rt. Rev. Wilson R. Stearly, Suffragan Bishop of the diocese, to be its Bishop Coadjutor.

There was but one nomination—the Rt. Rev. Wilson R. Stearly, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of the diocese. A ballot was taken and it was immediately reported that there were no blank or defective ballots and that Bishop Searly had received 92 clerical votes and 66 lay votes. Whereupon the President declared the Rt. Rev. Dr. Stearly elected Coadjutor Bishop by unanimous vote in both orders on the first ballot.

The Coadjutor-elect, being escorted into the House by a special committee, was welcomed by the Bishop of the diocese.

Bishop Stearly's election was confirmed by the Church at large and became effective in October, 1917.

NORTH CAROLINA, DIOCESES IN

The two dioceses and the missionary district of Asheville met together in Christ Church, New Bern, on Ascension Day, May 17, 1917, to commemorate the completion of one hundred years of the organized life of the Church in North Carolina.

On April 24, 1817, three clergymen, the Rev. Messrs. Judd of Fayetteville, Empire of Wilmington, and Clay of Newbern, and six laymen of these parishes and Edenton, met in Christ Church, Newbern, and organized the diocese of North Carolina. From that small beginning, three bishops, 129 clergy, and over 17,000 communicants are found at the present time.

Mr. H. A. London, a nephew of one of the six delegates at the original convention in 1817, was present at this celebration.

A mural tablet commemorating the centennial, had the following lettering:

"1817 1917

"To the Glory of God and in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Diocese of North Carolina.

"The Diocese of North Carolina was organized at a convention held for that purpose in Old Christ Church, New Bern, N. C., April 24, 1817.

"Members of the Convention: The Rev. Bethel Judd, St. John's Church, Fayetteville. President of the Convention: The Rev. Adam Empie, St. James' Church, Wilmington. Secretary of the Convention: The Rev. John Curtis Clay, Christ Church, New Bern. John Rutherford London, Marsden Campbell, St. James' Church, Wilmington. John Stanley, John Spence West, Christ Church, New Bern. Josiah Collins, St. Paul's Church, Edenton. John Winslow, St. John's Church, Fayetteville.

SAPHORE, EDWIN WARREN

Suffragan Bishop of Arkansas, was born in _____

He is an alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania. His orders were received in 1897 and 1898 from Bishop Huntington of Central New York, and his first work was done in that diocese. He was at Jordan in 1898 and 1899, and thereafter at the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse; St. Paul's Church, Watertown; and All Saints' Church, Syracuse. From 1900 till 1903 he was a professor at St. Andrew's Divinity School, Syracuse, and he also served as an examining chaplain of the diocese of Central New York. From 1909 he

RT. REV. G. H. SHERWOOD
Bishop of Springfield

was Archdeacon of Arkansas, and for several years was secretary of the diocese. He was elected Suffragan Bishop on May 9, 1917. His consecration took place at St. Luke's Church, Hot Springs, Ark., on Aug. 24, 1917. Bishop Tuttle, presiding, was assisted by the Bishops of Texas and Arkansas as co-consecrators, the latter preaching the sermon. The Bishops of West Missouri and West Texas were presenters.

SHERWOOD, GRANVILLE HUDSON,

Third Bishop of Springfield, was born at Elgin, Ill., December 6, 1878, and was educated at St. Paul's School, Concord; Trinity College, Hartford; the University of Chicago; and in theology at the Western Theological Seminary, graduating in 1903. In the same year he was ordained by Bishop Anderson as deacon and as priest and assumed charge of Christ Church, Streator, Ill., in the diocese of Chicago. In this charge he continued until 1905, when he became rector of Trinity Church, Rock Island, Ill. He was for several years president of the Standing Committee of the diocese of Quincy and served as deputy from that diocese to General Convention since 1907. He was elected to succeed the Rt. Rev. Edward W. Osborne, D.D. (resigned), at a special synod of the diocese of Springfield on December 27, 1916. He was consecrated on St. Mark's Day, April 25, 1917, in his parish church at Rock Island. The Presiding Bishop officiated, assisted by the Bishops of Chicago and Quincy as co-consecrators, while the Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio was preacher, and the Bishops of Iowa and Nebraska were the presenting bishops.

SOCIAL SERVICE, JOINT COMMISSION ON

During the past year the Joint Commission on Social Service has given an increasing part of its attention to problems raised by America's entrance into the world war. Last spring, before the appointment of the Church War Commission, the Joint Commission issued three War Service Bulletins on such subjects as War Relief, A War Service Programme for the Church, The Training Camp Problem, of which several thousand copies have been distributed, the last bulletin having been sent to the clergy generally throughout the country. The Commission has specially recommended local coöperation of parishes in training camp communities with the various governmental and voluntary agencies which are attempting to make and keep clean and wholesome the various centers where soldiers and sailors are brought together; also efforts on the part of parish clergy generally throughout the country to keep in touch with their own men who have been called into service, by supplying them with magazines and comforts, by sending them personal letters, and by recommending them to the care of local churches and chaplains.

The Commission's War Service Programme, issued last May, in particular urged the Church to "use every legitimate agency and influence, general, provincial, diocesan, parochial—

"To aid war sufferers at home and abroad;

"To safeguard the health and morality of the nation's manhood in military training camps and in active service, through the suppression and prevention of vice and of the sale of alcoholic beverages, and through the provision of adequate and rational recreational, educational, and athletic opportunities and the appointment of sufficient number of army and navy chaplains, and such other moral and religious workers as may be deemed necessary;

"To conserve and increase the nation's food supply by encouraging private and communal cultivation of the soil, eliminating waste in consumption, and prohibiting the use of foodstuffs in the manufacture of intoxicants;

"To maintain the present industrial and educational standards attained through long effort, and not allow them to be lowered by so-called 'emergency' demands; especially to prevent the overworking of women and children and the taking of pupils from the schools, except so far as may be absolutely necessary in view of future contingencies;

"To promote the equitable distribution of the costs of war by prevention of excessive profits from commerce in the necessities of life, and by securing a just apportionment of war taxes according to individual and corporate resources;

"To safeguard the ideals and institutions of democracy in our own land during a war waged 'to make the world safe for democracy'."

To these various ends the Commission has coöperated, so far as possible, with the Federal Council of Churches, the Y. M. C. A., the Federal Commission on Training Camp Activities, and such Episcopal agencies as the Girls' Friendly Society, the Church Mission of Help, the Church Periodical Club, etc., and has, through its secretary, looked into conditions at Army training camps, particularly in the South, with a view to effect coöperation with agencies already working to secure satisfactory conditions.

During the past fall the Joint Commission arranged with the Church War Commission, appointed during the summer, to take over the enlisting of the Church in the nine weeks' Food Conservation Campaign (October 28-December 31, inclusive) in coöperation with the U. S. Food Administration. It urged the appointment in the various parishes of food conservation committees which should distribute, collect, and summarize individual pledge cards furnished by the Government, and be generally responsible for continuing the campaign in each parish through the entire nine weeks' period. The War Commission has also requested the Joint Commission to undertake coöperation in the maintenance during the war period of industrial standards reached during times of peace—a necessity enforced by the experience of America's Allies, especially of England during the first months of the war.

In addition to its war work, the Commission also feels the necessity of maintaining so far as possible the normal social service activities of the Church at large, and partly to that end has added to its Social Study Series begun last year another number on The Social Aspects of Church History during the first three centuries, and has further contemplated the issuance of a monthly or quarterly bulletin devoted to the propagation of social service interests. It has also during the year announced a prize essay competition open to the middle classes in the dozen Episcopal theological seminaries throughout the country.

Among other matters of interest may be mentioned the successful efforts of the Commission to interest the Church at large in its financial support. Upwards of fifty of the eighty-five dioceses and missionary districts throughout the country are now contributing to the Commission's support, and it is hoped that by another year practically all will be giving their aid.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA, DIOCESE OF,

at its annual council in Epiphany Church, Danville, Va., May 29, 1917, in response to the request of the venerable Bishop of the diocese, the Rt. Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, D.D., took action to secure further episcopal supervision by the election of the Rev. Arthur Conover Thomson, D.D., to the office of Suffragan Bishop of the diocese. The vote by ballots was as follows:

	1st		2nd		3rd		4th		5th
Rev. A. C. Thomson, D.D.	10	17	22	15	27	15	33	22	38	27

Rev. H. H. Covington	..	1	..	1	..	..	..	..	..	..
Rev. G. Otis Mead	..	..	..	..	3	..	3	..	..	2

This diocese is the only one in the American Church which has the three classes of Bishops allowed under our canons.

The Rev. Dr. Thomson receiving the concurrent majority in both orders on the fifth ballot was declared elected. He was consecrated on September 27, 1917, at his parish church at Portsmouth, Va.

SPRINGFIELD, DIOCESE OF

A special synod called for the purpose of electing a successor to the Rt. Rev. Edward William Osborne, D.D. (resigned), met in St. Paul's Church and parish house, Springfield, Ill., on Wednesday, December 27, 1916. The retiring Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Edward W. Osborne, D.D., was elected chairman of the synod, while the Rev. John C. White served as secretary. Twenty of the clergy entitled to vote for bishops were present, besides several other of the clergy. Thirty parishes and missions were represented by sixty-nine delegates who answered to their names. The list of fifteen names previously sent to the Standing Committee was presented to the synod and these priests were severally nominated. The Rev. George C. Dunlop of Christ Church, Springfield, was nominated from the floor. The synod then proceeded into St. Paul's Church, where the Holy Communion was celebrated by Bishop Osborne, who also made a short address. At the conclusion of this service the synod proceeded to the balloting, which was successful on the thirteenth attempt. The first and last ballots were as follows:

	1st		13th
Rev. William Baker	1	2	..	..
Ven. W. S. Claiborne	1	1	..	..
Rev. Willis M. Cleaveland	..	1	..	..
Rev. J. Boyd Coxe	1	..	..	..
Rev. Stuart Crockett	2	2	..	..
Rev. George P. Hoster, D.D.	..	2	..	..
Rev. H. W. Mizner	3	7	..	..
Rev. John M. Page	..	2	..	..
Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, D.D.	3	3	6	5
Rev. L. F. Potter	1	1	..	..
Rev. G. H. Sherwood	2	..	14	25
Rev. G. C. Stewart, L.H.D.	1	2	..	..
Ven. John C. White	1	5	..	..
Very Rev. F. S. White	..	..	..	..
Rev. C. H. Young	1	..	..	..
Rev. G. C. Dunlop	3	1	..	..

On the thirteenth ballot the Rev. Granville Hudson Sherwood, rector of Trinity Church, Rock Island, Ill., was elected by a vote of fourteen of the clergy and twenty-five of the laity. A two-third vote of both orders was necessary to a choice. The election was immediately made unanimous by a rising vote, after which the synod sang the Doxology.

The salary of the new Bishop was fixed at $3,000, without house, and $600 per annum for traveling expenses. The Standing Committee appointed a committee of notification, sent immediately a telegram and letter and appointed the Rev. John M. Page to visit personally the Bishop-elect and notify him of his election. After signing the testimonial the synod adjourned.

The Bishop-elect was consecrated on April 25, 1917.

THOMSON, ARTHUR CONOVER, D.D.,

Bishop Suffragan of Southern Virginia, was born in Fredericksburg, Va., April 16, 1871, his father being the late venerable Archdeacon E. H. Thomson, veteran missionary in China. Bishop Thomson was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1890, and from the Theological Seminary in Virginia in 1893. He was made deacon in 1893, and sent by Bishop Whittle to Tappahannock, in the diocese of Virginia, where he served from 1893 to 1895, being ordained to the priesthood in 1894. His second parish was the Church of the Resurrection, Cincinnati, Ohio, 1895 to 1899, from which he went to Trinity Church, Portsmouth, in 1899, in succession to Dr. James B. Funsten, the present Bishop of Idaho.

He was for a number of years secretary of the diocesan missionary society, and when a change was made in that organization he was largely instrumental in working out the plans of the board of diocesan missions, of which he was made secretary and treasurer. He was deputy to the last two General Conventions. He was married in 1893 to Miss Mary Fitzhugh of Leesburg, Va.

He was elected Suffragan Bishop of the diocese of Southern Virginia, May 29, 1917, and his consecration took place in his parish church at Portsmouth, Va., on September 27, 1917. The participating bishops were the Presiding Bishop, the Bishop of Southern Virginia, the Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia, the Bishop of East Carolina, the Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia, and the Bishops of North Carolina and Georgia. Trinity Church, Portsmouth, which Bishop Thomson leaves, is an old colonial church and has sent a number of its rectors into the episcopate, including the present Bishops of Georgia and Idaho.

TOURET, FRANK HALE,

Missionary Bishop of Western Colorado, was born March 25, 1875, at Salem, Mass. He is an alumnus of Harvard University ('97) and of the Episcopal Theological School ('03). He was ordered deacon by Bishop Lawrence in 1903, served his diaconate at St. John's Church, Providence, R. I., and was advanced to the priesthood in 1904 by Bishop McVickar. He was at Christ Church, Detroit, Mich., from 1904 to 1906, and was then rector of St. Luke's Church, Fort Collins, Colo. From 1910 until his elevation to the episcopate he was rector of Grace Church, Colorado Springs. He has served as a member of the diocesan board of missions and has held other offices within the gift of the Church. His consecration took place on the Feast of the Purification, 1917, in his parish church, Grace Church, Colorado Springs, Colo. The Presiding Bishop was assisted by the Bishops of West Texas and the Coadjutor of Colorado as co-consecrators, the Bishop of Montana being the preacher, and the Bishops of Eastern Oklahoma and Utah the presenting bishops.

VAN BUREN, JAMES HEARTT, D.D.,

retired Bishop of Porto Rico, entered into rest on July 9, 1917, after several months illness.

Bishop Van Buren was sixty-seven years old. He was graduated from Yale in 1873, and received deacon's and priest's orders in 1876 and 1877 at the hands of Bishop Williams, serving his first years in the diocese of Connecticut. He was rector of St. Paul's Church, Englewood, N. J., from 1881 till 1884, when he became rector of St. Paul's Church, Newburyport, Mass. From 1890 till 1901 he served the parish of St. Stephen's, Lynn, Mass., and in 1902 was ordained Bishop of Porto Rico, his consecrators being Bishops Peterkin, Lawrence, Brewster, Hall, Codman, and Vinton. Among his published works are a Short History of the Christian Church (1886), Confirmation Addresses (1900), Latin Hymns in English Verse (1904), and Sermons That Have Helped (1908). He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Berkeley Divinity School in the year of his consecration. In 1911 he retired from the bishopric of Porto Rico.

Mrs. Van Buren, who was Anne M. Smith of Norwalk, Conn., survives her husband. The Bishop also leaves a son, who is professor of archaeology at the American School of Science at Rome, Italy.

WALKER, RT. REV. WILLIAM DAVID, D.D.,

third Bishop of Western New York, who died on May 2, 1917, was born in New York in 1839, the son of James and Mary (Lahey) Walker, and received his bachelor's degree in arts from Columbia in 1859, three years before his graduation from the General Theological Seminary. His academic honors were numerous, including degrees from Racine (D.D., 1884), Oxford (D.D., 1894), Columbia (S.T.D., 1884), Trinity College, Dublin (LL.D., 1894), King's College, N. S. (D.C.L., 1892). He received his deacon's and priest's orders at the hands of Bishop Horatio Potter in 1862 and 1863, and from the beginning of his ministry until his consecration as Missionary Bishop of North Dakota in 1883 he served as vicar of Calvary Chapel, New York. After a missionary episcopate in North Dakota in the years from 1883 till 1896, Bishop Walker was translated to Western New York. In 1887 he was appointed by President Cleveland a member of the United States Board of Indian Commissioners. In 1897 he was select preacher at the University of Cambridge, England.

WAR ACTIVITIES OF THE CHURCH

When war was declared, there were two Commissions of the Church relating to the Army and Navy.

1. The Commission on the Appointment of Chaplains, of which the Bishop of Washington is chairman. He has had heavy work since in sifting applicants for chaplaincies and in a large correspondence.

2. The Commission on the Increase of Chaplains and their Equipment, of which the Bishop of Massachusetts is chairman. Activities closely associated with the work of the Commission became so numerous and important and opened up such large responsibilities that it became clear that if the Church were to do her part in the war and care for her sons, a War Commission with fuller powers should be appointed as an emergency measure, even though there was no canonical authority for such action.

On August 4th the Presiding Bishop in a letter to the Bishop of Massachusetts appointed a War Commission, and assigned "for its charge the watchful care and direction of Church work in connection with camps and cantonments, battlefields and hospitals, Army and Navy chaplains, and such like matters."

Through the generosity of Anton G. Hodenpyl, Esq., an office with equipment has been provided at 14 Wall St., New York.

The War Commission itself is scanning the whole world-wide field of war activity in order to assume its responsibility in behalf of the Church. Bishop McCormick has already been sent to the front as representative of the Commission and has received from the Bishop of Marquette authority to perform any episcopal ministrations in Episcopal churches on the continent of Europe. Bishop Israel, who has already been engaged in work in France for several months, had previously received similar authority from Bishop Williams.

The War Commission has begun its canvass to collect a fund of $500,000. Up to the time of their meeting on October 2nd, $30,000 had been subscribed. A suggested apportionment of the total amount required will be sent to the several dioceses.

On the side of war activities it was determined to assist in the erection of an interdenominational church building for the camp at Yaphank, N. Y., the building to be used by various religious bodies as opportunity presents itself. Chaplain Pruden remarked that a similar coöperative work in an army post in Honolulu had been successfully attempted where a Roman Catholic priest, a Presbyterian minister, and he himself had shared the use of a post chapel. It was determined on the suggestion of Bishop Gailor, chairman of the Food Commission of the Church, that the War Commission should take over the work of that commission.

War activities of other organizations in the Church are briefly recapitulated as follows:

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The Brotherhood has a War Council of fifteen, including bishops, priests, and laymen. It did not wait for the appointment of the War Commission. For months it has been gathering data, especially the names and addresses of Churchmen who are in the various camps and cantonments. It aims to put a Brotherhood worker in every cantonment. Dr. Mott of the Y. M. C. A. has expressed the hope that these lay workers serve as Y. M. C. A. secretaries though their duties would be more expressly those of looking after Episcopalians.

The Brotherhood has submitted its plan to the War Commission and has secured the backing of that body up to $25,000.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

[See above.]

GENERAL BOARD OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The war work of the G. B. R. E. is along two lines:

1. The Church students. There are 30,000 Churchmen in our colleges and secondary schools. There are 500,000 pupils in our Church schools. All these are being profoundly affected by the war. And what kind of men and women are these to be in the period of reconstruction? The G. B. R. E. considers the children of the Church as war problems not second to that of the young men in the cantonments and on the firing line.

2. The patriotic service of our Church schools: The Rev. Lester Bradner, Ph.D., has organized the parochial work of the Church schools among the soldiers.

Dr. Bradner presented the Programme of Patriotic Service issued by the G. B. R. E., with its graded suggestions for service and suggested lines of organization in the Church school by which cooperation might be secured with the Red Cross, the Church Periodical Club, the army and navy chaplains, etc.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

In April last it voted to extend its services to all chaplains. A special committee was appointed on chaplains' welfare.

Five hundred dollars has been expended upon slides, service books, and whatever the chaplains needed. A great deal of reading material has been distributed. The C. P. C. is now serving one half of the chaplains in the Army and Navy and in base hospitals. Every chaplain has been written to. The C. P. C. is now serving a few chaplains outside the Church who have specially applied. They are asking for Victrola records and distributing them. Recently a Victrola was purchased and presented to a chaplain on the eve of his sailing for France.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

There is plenty of practical work being done. The G. F. S. wants to link the ideal with this. The G. F. S. has four great ideals which it emphasizes: 1. Purity; 2. Thrift; 3. Duty; 4. Faithfulness. In the light of the war these become in a new way inspiring and luminous.

In England the G. F. S. has been of great service among the girl munition workers. In the diocese of New York this last summer rooms for war headquarters were taken by the diocesan G. F. S. in Miss Chapin's School. Work was carried on there for the Red Cross and for the French wounded. Recreation work was also done. From June 4th to September 8th more than 3,200 girls had gathered at these headquarters.

ST. BARNABAS' GUILD FOR NURSES

Large numbers of S. B. girls are at the front as nurses. Nearly every parish has sent one or more. Dean Davis of St. Louis and Bishop Israel are among the S. B. chaplains overseas. The Bishop of Western Michigan, the War Commission's special representative, has just been elected as a special representative of St. Barnabas' Guild also, and is asked to give such aid to the members of the Guild as may be possible. The endeavor is to keep all nurses in touch with chaplains and with their home parishes.

There are war activities also in many dioceses under diocesan authorities. Notably is this the case in Pennsylvania and in the two dioceses of New Jersey.

It is asked that organizations undertaking or having already undertaken special war work under Church auspices will report on their work and needs to the War Commission at its office, 14 Wall street, New York, while any subscriptions should be sent to the treasurer, Arthur E. Newbold, care Drexel & Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

WESTERN NEW YORK, DIOCESE OF, mourns the death of its third Bishop, the Rt. Rev. William David Walker, D.D., who entered into rest on May 2, 1917. The funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, May 4th. A special council to elect his successor was held in Trinity Church, Buffalo, on June 5th, at which the Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., rector of Trinity parish, New York City, was elected on the third ballot, receiving 49 clerical and 38 lay votes, while 32 clerical and 26 lay votes were cast for the Rev. C. J. Davis, other votes being scattering. Dr. Manning subsequently declined the election. A second council was held on July 5th, at which the Rev. Alexander Mann, D.D., rector of Trinity Church, Boston, Mass., was elected. Dr. Mann has also declined the election, it being the third time he has declined episcopal honors.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION

Established October 25th, 1880, by the General Convention. Its aim is to assist in the building of churches, rectories, and parish houses, by means of a system of loans, gifts, and grants. The Permanent Fund (1917) is $646,274.14. The officers of the Corporation are: President, Rt. Rev. Chas. Sumner Burch, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of New York; Vice-President, Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D.; Secretary, Rev. William W. Bellinger, D.D.; Treasurer, Mr. George Gordon King; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Charles L. Pardee, D.D.; Assistant Treasurer, Mr. E. Walter Roberts. The office of the Commission is in the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York.

THE CHURCH PENSION FUND

14 Wall Street, New York City.

Established by the General Convention October 22, 1913; adopted by the Conventions of all the 68 Dioceses and the Convocations of 19 of the Missionary Districts in 1915 and 1916; chartered by the Legislature of New York, April 3, 1914.

President, Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts. Treasurer, J. Pierpont Morgan; Secretary, Monell Sayre. .

Trustees (Elected by the General Convention): Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Rt. Rev. Theodore N. Morrison, D.D., Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, D.D., Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D.D., Rt. Rev. Rogers Israel, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Rev. James H. McIlvaine, D.D., Rev. Edward L. Parsons, D.D., Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D., Samuel Mather, J. Pierpont Morgan, William Fellowes Morgan, Charles A. Peabody, William H. Truesdale, Charlton Yarnell.

Financial support: An assessment upon each parish and other salary-paying organization in the Church of 7½ per cent. upon the salary paid to the clergy (a rectory adding one-sixth to the money salary). The assessment system went into operation on March 1, 1917, when the Initial Reserve contributed by the Church during the preceding year amounted to more than $8,500,000.

The General Convention designs the Church Pension Fund to assure support to all the aged and disabled clergy and the families of all deceased clergymen. The pension benefits are:

First. At 68, upon retirement from regular active work, an annuity equal to 1¼ per cent. of the average annual salary multiplied by the years of service. Minimum $600. The minimum not promised if ordination took place at 36 or over.

Second. Upon disability at any age, an annuity during its continuance of 40 per cent. of the average salary for the previous five years. Minimum $600.

Third. To a widow, one-half of the old age annuity to which the husband would have been entitled, calculating his annuity from the date of marriage only. Minimum $300, if marriage contracted before retirement.

Fourth. To minor orphans, $100 from ages one to seven; $200 between ages seven and fourteen; $300 from age fourteen to majority or end of dependence.

The clergy ordained prior to March 1, 1917, and their families can only receive the minimum pensions given above, and half of the minor orphans' benefits, until the annual assessments, in any individual case, have been paid sufficiently long after March 1, 1917, as to entitle the beneficiary to a larger grant.

ORGANIZATIONS FOR THE INCREASE, AID, AND BETTER SUSTENANCE OF THE MINISTRY

[See Church Pension Fund, page 139]

Society for the Increase of the Ministry

(Incorporated 1859.) President, Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. S. O. Seymour, D.D.; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. F. D. Hoskins, 86 Buckingham St., Hartford, Conn.; Treasurer, Elijah C. Johnson, Nat'l Exchange Bank, Hartford, Conn.

Clergymen's Mutual Insurance League

(Incorporated 1869.) Pres., Rev. W. N. Dunnell, D.D.; Sec.-Treas., Rev. Edwin B. Rice, 212 N. Fulton Ave., Mount Vernon, N. Y. The object is the mutual insurance of relief to families of deceased members. Any Clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church not over 45 years of age, in good health, and not to his knowledge seized of any disease likely to prove fatal, may become a member. Admission fee, $2.00. Mortuary calls, $2.00 each. All applications for membership must be made to the Treasurer. Over $450,000 has been paid to the widows and orphans of its deceased members. Average cost per annum, $8.00. This insures a clergyman's family a benefit equal to twice as many dollars as there are members.

"The Clergyman's Retiring Fund Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States"

(Incorporated 1869.) Pres., Rev. W. N. Dunnell, D.D.; Sec.-Treas., Rev. Edwin B. incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey, A. D. 1874. President, the Rt. Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D.; Secretary, Hon. J. Van-Vechten Olcott; Treasurer, Rev. Dr. H. Anstice; Financial Secretary, Rev. Dr. Henry Anstice; Office of the Society, 281 Fourth Ave., New York; Committee on Trust Funds, Rev. Dr. W. H. Vibbert, Mr. J. VanV. Olcott, and Mr. George F. Crane. The Trustees of the C. R. F. S. are making the effort to secure a large national fund in order properly to pension the aged clergy of the American Church. It affords annuities to all clergymen who have reached the age of 60 years, who have paid regularly $12 per year for at least five years preceding. The amount of annuity is dependent upon the years of membership, the amount of contributions by the Church at large, and the interest on the invested capital, which is now $400,000.00. The present number of annuities is 306, and the total clerical membership is 659. Laymen may become members by paying dues for the benefit of some clergyman whom they may designate. Any information will be given by the Financial Secretary.

Guild of the Holy Cross

For invalids. Founder, the late Rev. James A. Bolles, D.D. Chaplain, Rev. Father Field, S.S.J.E. Warden, the Rev. Mother Elizabeth, O.S.A., St. John's House for Children, Arlington Heights, Mass.

OBJECT:—The object of this Association is mutual comfort and useful employment for invalids; that they may not feel themselves cut off from active work in the Church Militant, but may rather use their leisure as given them of God for the duty of intercession, and for the benefit of others of His children who, like themselves, are suffering bodily pain and weariness. The Guild consists of invalids (also those not entirely invalids), who are called Members; and persons in health who are called Associates. The Guild has founded one work of mercy, viz, a Home for Crippled and Invalid Children, Holy Cross House, Cleveland, Ohio, in charge of the Community of the Transfiguration. The Journal of the Guild is published monthly at St. John's House for Children, Arlington Heights, Mass.

Guild of the Love of God

Is a Society of Catholics in the Anglican communion who seek by fellowship and love to strengthen their own devotion to the Catholic religion, and to lead and help others to a fuller knowledge and acceptance of it. It requires from its members an observance of the whole Catholic discipline, but seeks to spread the Faith by love rather than by controversy.

The Guild has branches in every part of the United Kingdom, and in India, Australia, South Africa, Canada, United States, etc.

Anyone wishing to have further particulars is invited to communicate with the Sub-Warden, Rev. C. T. Pfeiffer, Laurel, Del.

Guild of S. Barnabas for Nurses

To help the nurses to realize the greatness of their calling; to maintain a high standard in it, and also to enable them more surely to overcome the temptation incident to their profession. The Guild is intended for all nurses, whether graduated or in course of training. There are branches in 26 cities, with an aggregate membership of about 2,000. Chaplain General, the Suffragan Bishop of New York. For particulars apply to Mrs. E. Bowman Leaf, 2027 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Guild of the Holy Ghost the Comforter

(American Branch.) A devotional Guild open to all communicants of the Anglican Church. The chief aim of the Guild is to honor God the Holy Ghost in the Holy Catholic Church, and to help carry out His divine purposes. Obligation: (1) To say the Intercessions and Thanksgivings once a week; (2) To communicate at the altar with special intention for the Guild once a Quarter at the least. President, the Lord Bishop of London (England); Vice-Presidents, the Archbishop of Ottawa, the Bishops of Tennessee, Harrisburg, and Columbia; Superior-General, the Rev. F. J. Barwell-Walker, 6935 Stewart Ave., Chicago, Ill.; General Secretary, the Rev. A. Worger-Slade, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Secretary for Canada, Miss Helen S. Des-Brisay, 180 Cottingham St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

The Society of S. Charles, King and Martyr

Owes its existence to a strong desire on the part of certain American Churchmen to bring into greater prominence the name of the one saint officially canonized by the Church of England since the Reformation. The object of the Society is two-fold: First, the restoration of the practice of commemorating Saint Charles, thus aiding in the fulfilment of the prayer of our forefathers: "Let his memory, O Lord, be ever blessed among us." Secondly, the presentation in the name of the Society of altar crosses and candlesticks, altar desks, processional crosses, and other accessories of worship to churches in need of the same. The Prior, William Francis Smith, 1412 Ritner St., Philadelphia; Secretary, James McKee, Jr.

The Society of the Nazarene

Founded on the belief in Our Lord's continued interest in the health of the body as well as the salvation of the soul; and for the purpose of bringing about a restoration of the gift of healing, universally practised in the early Church. It aims to deepen the spiritual life and impart strength and health to body and soul by prayer, laying on of hands, or anointing. The clergy who have faith in this Apostolic practice are requested to enroll.

Associate membership open to men and women. For intercessions for invalids, or for further information regarding membership, address Rev. Henry B. Wilson, Director, St. John's Rectory, Boonton, N. J.

The Eucharistic League

Object:—To pray for the restoration of our Lord's own Service to its Scriptural and traditional place as the chief service of every Lord's Day . . . its membership unrestricted by any definitions of Eucharistic doctrine or ritual. There are no dues and no parochial organizations. It is a league of prayer. Hon. President, the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, D.D. Vice-Presidents, The Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D.D., LL.D., the Rt. Rev. Richard H. Nelson, D.D., the Rt. Rev. Rogers Israel, D.D., the Rt. Rev. Charles E. Woodcock, D.D., the Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson D.D., LL.D. Booklet sent upon request. RELIGIOUS ORDERS

FOR MEN

The Society of Mission Priests of St. John the Evangelist

(Founded at Cowley, in England, 1865. Established in this country in 1872. The American Province became autonomous in 1914.)

The Society has been formed for the cultivation of a life dedicated to God according to the principles of poverty, chastity, and obedience; and shall occupy itself in works missionary and educational, both at home and abroad, for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ, as God in His good providence may seem to call. Lay brothers are united with the priests in dedication of life and work. The Mission Church of St. John the Evangelist, Boston, Mass., is the centre of the Society's work in America. Among external works the fathers give themselves especially to the preaching of missions and the conducting of retreats. Superior, Rev. F. C. Powell, S.S.J.E. Address the Rev. Father Superior, 33 Bowdoin St., Boston.

"The Order of the Holy Cross"

(Founded 1881.) A Religious Order for Priests and Laymen. Objects: The cultivation of the spiritual life of its members and the practice of good works, especially in the conducting of Missions, Conferences, and Retreats. The Order has charge of St. Andrew's School for mountain boys at Sewanee, Tenn., and Kent School for Boys at Kent, Conn. Publishes The Holy Cross Magazine (monthly), Holy Cross Tracts (monthly), and the Holy Cross Prayer Kalendar (annually). Applications and communications may be addressed to the Father Superior, O.H.C., West Park, N. Y.

THE SOCIETY OF THE OBLATES OF MOUNT CALVARY

An Association of Clergy and Seminarians united with the Order of the Holy Cross in a life of devotion for the fulfilment of their priestly vocation. The members of the Society are pledged to live under a Rule suited to their condition of life; and they share with the Order in its spiritual works of mercy, and, in part, in its devotional observances.

The Congregation of the Companions of the Holy Saviour

A Society of Priests and Candidates for Holy Orders, living under a Rule for the strengthening and development of their spiritual and sacerdotal life. Its work is mainly parochial. Retreats for Priests are held during the year. Master of the Congregation, Rev. F. D. Ward, 1606 Mifflin St., Philadelphia.

Congregation of the Good Shepherd

Founded on the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, September 8, 1908. Its object is to encourage priests of the Anglican Communion to give themselves to God in an unmarried life; to help such priests to attain greater efficiency and holiness by means of a Rule of Life and an association of sympathy and love. Membership consists of priests, deacons, and candidates, postulants, and aspirants for Holy Orders. For information address Rev. H. C. Dana, East Providence, R. I.

"The Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity"

Founded in 1882, by the Rev. C. C. Grafton, afterward Bishop of Fond du Lac. This Sisterhood is engaged principally in Parochial and Mission work. The Mother House and Novitiate are at Fond du Lac, Wis. In Wisconsin the sisters are working at the Cathedrals of Fond du Lac and Milwaukee, and have a House on the Oneida Reservation, where they established the lace industry among the Indian women. In the east they have three houses, one in Providence, R. I., where the sisters work in S. Stephen's and Christ Churches; one in Portland, Me., with work at the Cathedral, and one in Newport, R. I., where they work in S. John's parish. The Sisters are also working at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York City, and at S. John's Church, Newport, R. I. They have lately opened a house in West Orange, N. J., which is open to ladies who may wish to make a day's retreat, or desire a rest for a few days or longer. The Sisters visit parishes at the rector's request, remaining for some time, and giving temporary aid in parish work, viz.—the formation of guilds, gathering the unbaptized, preparing persons for Confirmation, etc. Where missions are being held, they often go to aid the missioner. The ecclesiastical embroidery rooms and the Altar Bread department are at the Convent, Fond du Lac, where there is also a picture department through which the Sisters try to do a missionary work by furnishing devotional cards for the Holy Eucharist, and cards for Christmas, Easter, and other occasions, conveying Church teaching. They have a free Lending Library, for sending out Church books by mail, with no expense to the borrower, except the return postage.

For information, address the Rev. Mother Superior, Convent of the Holy Nativity, Fond du Lac, Wis.

The Order of S. Anne

Founded in 1910. Composed of women living under vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. After a novitiate of from two to three years, vows are made annually for three years; when that period is ended, the vows are made for life.

The Order consists of two divisions: the First and the Second Order. The First Order—some members of which are enclosed—has as its primary object perpetual intercession and the care of children. The aim of the Second Order, the members of which do not wear a conventional religious habit, is an active life in the world while still living by the rule of the Order.

Each convent of the Order is autonomous, all the Sisters having a vote in the election of the Mother.

For information address The Reverend Mother, O.S.A., St. John's House, Arlington Heights, Mass.; or The Reverend Mother, O.S.A., St. Augustine's Farm, Foxboro, Mass.; or the Reverend Mother, O.S.A., St. Anne's Convent, American Church Mission, Wuchang, China.

Diocesan and Parochial

Diocesan officers of national organizations, such as Woman's Auxiliary, Girls' Friendly Society, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, etc., and also officers of Church Clubs and of Sunday School organizations, are printed in the department of Official and General Institutions, beginning page 119.

The statistics of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction have been compiled in nearly every case, from the official statistics given in their respective journals, and the sheets have been revised by the Bishops or Secretaries of the Dioceses, to the latest moment possible. The numbers following the name of a Parish indicate the reported number of Communicants therein. The Clergy will confer a favor by forwarding corrections to be made in the next issue of THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL promptly to the office of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN Co., 484 Milwaukee street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Names of clergymen recorded are confined to those officially reported in diocesan journals or otherwise certified to the publishers as in good standing in some American diocese.

Titles of Institutions enclosed in quotation marks are those of legal corporations.

ARRANGEMENT OF PAROCHIAL LISTS.

Each clergyman's name appears ONCE under the head either of "Parishes, Missions, and Clergy", or "Non-Parochial Clergy", in the Diocese with which he is canonically connected. Where one of his cures is also his P. O. address, his name will there be found. If he has no cure at his P. O. address, his name will appear at his cure, with his P. O. in parentheses. Lesser points ministered to by the same clergyman will have references in italic to his main cure. Thus:

"Alpine, Trinity, r. Talladega."

This reference in italics indicates that the rector of Talladega is in charge of Trinity Church, Alpine. His name will be found by looking at "Talledega". This obviates the delays, expense, and annoyance of sending mail matter for the rector of Talladega to his lesser cure at Alpine.

Where the P. O. is not the same as the principal cure, it is designated thus:

Oakdale, Grace, Jas. T. McCaa (Mobile).

This shows that the missionary at Oakdale resides at Mobile, but has no charge in the latter city.

This method has the advantage of showing at a glance the correct P. O. address of each of the clergy in any given Diocese, and also shows which is the principal, and which the lesser, charge of any one clergyman.

r.=rector; m.=minister, missionary; loc. ten.=locum tenens; rec. emer.=rector emeritus; rec. hon.=rector honorarius; off.=officiating; cur.=curate.

CLERGY IN WAR SERVICE

The following compilation shows the clergy in active war service. This includes only those who are engaged solely, or chiefly, in such service, and not those many clergy in parishes adjacent to military camps who have added duty in connection with those camps to their parochial duties, not giving up the latter. Some of these, however, are serving in a military capacity only on temporary leave of absence from their parishes, and the list is constantly changing. Various others have been temporarily engaged in such work during portions of the past year, but have now returned to their parishes.

A Classified Index

THE ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS OF THE CHURCH WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS POSSESSIONS

The greatly increased number of corporate activities of the Church in recent years seems to make necessary this attempt to coördinate those in particular lines, whether Official, General, or Local. This Classified Index has therefore been prepared, in which the names of organizations for specific purposes wheresoever they may be described in the pages of this book, are now brought together under appropriate headings. Organizations and institutions of the Foreign Missionary Districts are not here included.

The abbreviations at the left of the following pages are used as follows:

Of.=Official—by authority of General Convention, or of some body created by General Convention.

Gen.=General institutions, not limited to single dioceses, but not official.

Abbreviations designating Religious orders, which have the management of institutions so designated, are to be found specifically by reference to the pages cited.

Abbreviations denoting the Diocese under which the institution may be located. As the Dioceses are arranged alphabetically, it is deemed unnecessary to refer to these by page also. Institutions that are recorded both under the head of "Religious Orders" and of specific dioceses are here chronicled with the former and not the latter reference.

Summary of Statistics for 1917

AS COMPARED WITH THOSE FOR 1916

Including the United States and Foreign Missions

	1917	1916	Incr.	Decr.
Clergy	5,895	5,874	21
Candidates for Orders	391	444		53
Postulants	387	400		13
Lay Readers	3,161	3,219	58
Parishes and Missions	8,611	8,517	94
Baptisms—Infant	50,012	54,985		4,973
Baptisms—Adult	11,855	14,452		2,597
Baptisms—not specified	5,466	4,713	753
Baptisms—Total	67,333	74,150		6,817
Confirmations	54,324	60,821		6,497
Communicants	1,090,555	1,086,089	4,466
Communicants—Increase per cent.		.025
Marriages	27,565	26,114	1,451
Burials	49,228	50,545		1,317
Sunday School—Teachers	55,488	54,369	1,119
Sunday School—Scholars	479,317	495,750		16,433
Contributions	$21,525,249.55	$20,124,013.14	$1,401,236.41

NOTE.—The decrease in Baptisms and Confirmations is doubtless due to the fact that many parishes, and some whole dioceses, acting according to the new legislation of General Convention, have changed their fiscal year to correspond with the kalendar year, and thus have now reported for a "short" year of less than twelve months. Unhappily this transition stage will probably require several successive years before it is finally accomplished, thus playing havoc with annually compiled tables of statistics.

THE CHURCH TEMPERANCE SOCIETY

RT. REV. FREDERICK COURTNEY, D.D. - - President
WILLIAM JAY SCHIEFFELIN, ESQ., Ph.D. - - Treasurer
REV. JAMES EMPRINGHAM, S.T.D. - - Gen'l Supt.

The clergy of the staff of the C.T.S. are glad at all times to speak anywhere and to preach at regular services on Sunday in the interests of the campaign to emancipate our country from the evils of the liquor traffic. All traveling expenses are borne by the Society and the speakers receive no fee. :: :: :: ::

Address the General Superintendent,

CHURCH TEMPERANCE SOCIETY,
214 METROPOLITAN TOWER,
No. 1 MADISON AVE., NEW YORK CITY.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE INCREASE OF THE MINISTRY

FOUNDED A. D. 1857

President—Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Hartford, Conn.
Recording Secretary—Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., Litchfield, Conn.
Corresponding Secretary—Rev. F. D. Hoskins, Hartford, Conn.
Treasurer—Elijah C. Johnson, Esq., National Exchange Bank, Hartford, Conn.

This society provides Scholarships for Students preparing for the Ministry of the Church. It confines its work to those who are taking a full academic course in approved Colleges, or the prescribed Seminary course, being college graduates.

For the last twelve months there have been thirty-six applicants. Thirteen hundred and eighty-two students have been helped in fifty years. At present there are students on the Society Scholarships from every part of the National Church. Much of the work is of a Missionary character. The Church greatly needs such an agency. Contributions from parishes and individuals asked for.

Address, REV. F. D. HOSKINS, 86 Buckingham St., Hartford, Conn.

Heating Churches Comfortably at a Reasonable Cost

The problem of effectively heating churches can only be solved by selecting a heating system of proved efficiency and making an installation in which the requirements of the individual church are carefully studied.

GILT EDGE HEATING SYSTEMS

have proved their exceptional adequacy for church heating over and over again. Clergymen, church officials and building committees endorse them highly.

Gilt Edge Heating Systems are installed by good heating contractors everywhere. Write for literature and special information regarding church heating by Warm Air, Hot Water, Steam or Vapor.

The Children's Challenge to the Church

By the Rev. Wm. Edward Gardner, D.D., General Secretary of the General Board of Religious Education. Price 75 cents, cloth; 40 cents, paper.

"'The Children's Challenge to the Church' is the first attempt to collect within two covers the essentials that should enter into the education of children, for a well-rounded Church life. It offers peculiar help to all rectors and teachers who are asking, 'What shall I teach in my Sunday school in order to vitalize its work?' Under each grade it provides directions and recommends material for the development of Bible study, memory work, Church Knowledge, Christian activity, and the devotional life. It aims to demonstrate that the Church has preserved wonderful teaching powers which are being neglected to-day because of a too extended treatment of the Bible. The titles of some of the chapters are suggestive. The confirmation period is entitled, 'The Church Knighting the Child' and the senior period, 'With the Church to the world Quest.' The emphasis on Missions and Social Service is constant."—The Spirit of Missions.

HOLY WEDLOCK

A Book with Marriage Service and Certificate

"HOLY WEDLOCK" is the title of our booklet containing the Marriage Service. It contains:

First. The Marriage Service from the Prayer Book rubricated, and the letterpress in a black text letter, old Missal style, very plain and yet the most attractive setting possible for the service.

Second. A Marriage Certificate, printed in Gold, Red, and Black.

Third. A blank page handsomely decorated, entitled "Bridal Party".

This page is intended for all the signatures of the Bridal Party.

Fourth. Five pages for "Congratulations of Guests", also ornamented in gold and colors. For signatures of friends present at the wedding.

Fifth. Four other pages exquisitely illuminated in gold and colors with appropriate selections.

This is the most beautiful book of its kind that has been prepared. The size is 5½ x 7 inches, gold lines around the pages. It will make the handsomest souvenir of the wedding that can be procured. Bound in three styles of covers:

No. 1—HOLY WEDLOCK, heavy parchment cover, in envelope. Net, 60 cts.

No. 2—HOLY WEDLOCK, bound in white leatherette, title of book in gold, boxed. Net, $1.00.

No. 3—HOLY WEDLOCK, white kid leather. $3.50.

Every bride will want one as a souvenir of her wedding day.
